Fruit Merger Involves Millions

THIRTY CONCERNS IN AMALGAMATION, SAYS JOSEPH DIGIORGIO

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FRESNO, June 3.—Announcement of the acquisition and amalgamation of more than thirty fruit companies under the DiGiorgio Fruit Corporation was made tonight at Visalia by Joseph DiGiorgio, president of the corporation, who is in California inspecting crop conditions preparatory to the opening of the season.

The fruit merger includes the Earl Fruit Company and the Producers' Fruit Company of California among others.

The amalgamation already represents assets of $15,000,000 and, according to DiGiorgio, the acquisition of other companies which have not been announced will bring the assets of the corporation up to nearly $20,000,000.

HAS VAST HOLDINGS.

Under its new organization the DiGiorgio Fruit Corporation owns controls and leases vast holdings in California, the Northwest, including Idaho, Oregon and Washington; the South, particularly in Florida, Georgia and Tennessee, and in Cuba and Jamaica.

In California the corporation owns fruit lands planted and in bearing amounting to 3660 acres, has under lease 4018 acres, and has marketing contracts covering 12,814 acres, making a total of 20,492 acres in California planted and in bearing. In addition the corporation owns and has under contracts and leases in the State in fruit lands to be planted, a total of 10,778 acres.

ACREAGE IN NORTHWEST.

In the Northwest the corporation has 13,411 acres planted mainly to cherries, peaches, pears, plums and apples. In Florida, Georgia and Tennessee it has 7713 acres producing oranges, grapefruit, peaches, tomatoes and cantaloupes. In Jamaica and Cuba the corporation's holdings aggregate 4364 acres, devoted mainly to bananas, cocoanuts and cocoa.

NO PROTECTION FOR HIM.

The home of H. S. Severson, manager of the Burglary Protection Company, at 1132 Kensington Road, was entered early this morning by two burglars who, after ignoring a collection of jewelry and other valuable articles, exchanged their two old suits for two of the best in Mr. Severson's wardrobe. Mr. Severson and his wife, found the discarded garments when they returned home from the Jonathan Club. Mr. Severson, who has equipped the Central Police Station and several downtown banks and stores with burglary alarms, immediately telephoned the police station and Detectives Vail and Parsons of the flying squadron found that the Severson home is minus an alarm equipment and that the burglars made their way quietly into the house through a window.

DISARMAMENT BATTLE IN HOUSE THREE-CORNERED.

Republicans and Democrats Would Have Land Forces as Well as Navies Included in Proposed Pact.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
[Copyright, Chicago Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The question of the reduction of armament for war developed today into a three-cornered contest. The Senate wants the President to negotiate an agreement with Great Britain and Japan on the reduction of navy building. The Republican and Democratic leadership in the House took a stand for the extension of the proposal to the reduction of military as well as naval armament by all the great powers.

Arthur Henning.

President Harding the moveing, while favorment, is opposed to any legislation on the subject at this time, preferring a free hand to handle the matter in the manner most conducive to the advantage of the United States in settling certain pending international controversies, notably with Japan.

In deference to the wishes of the President the House excluded the disarmament amendment from the naval appropriation bill. When the matter was pressed in the Senate the President yielded and the Borah amendment was included.

OUTCRY IS RAISED.

When the bill came back to the House today the Democrats raised an outcry over the position of cojnsso to the proposition in which the House had been placed. Acting Minority Leader Garrett moved that the House conferees be instructed to accept the Borah amendment, broadened to include all powers on both naval and land disarmament.

Republican Leader Mondell opposed any instruction to the conferees, but agreed that the Borah amendment should be expanded to include land disarmament and all powers on naval disarmament. He was immediately accused of trying to kill the whole scheme by making it impracticable, if not to bring about the elimination of the amendment from the bill altogether as the President desires. Replying to Representative Garner of Texas, who thought the Borah amendment better than none at all, Mr. Mondell said:

"I do not think the gentleman from Texas himself is for passing upon the question of recommending action to the President on the question of disarmament in the narrow and restricted way that the Borah amendment does. If we are to act upon that matter we should act upon it.

PEACE DICKER BROKEN OFF.

Marine Strikers and Shipping Board Fail to Agree; Harvard Sails Soon.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Negotiations between marine engineers and the Shipping Board for a settlement of the dispute on wages and working conditions have been broken off, W. S. Brown, president of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, declared today.

The failure to reach a settlement, Brown said, was due to the refusal of the shipowners and the Shipping Board to include a clause providing for the reinstatement of striking engineers.

"We could not sign an agreement that would force our men to work with the men who had taken the jobs of union men," he said.

A. J. Frey, general manager of the Los Angeles Steamship Company, last night denied reports that the steamer Harvard, sister ship of the Yale, is being held from sailing on account of the seamen's strike. Mr. Frey declared that the Harvard will be dispatched for San Francisco as soon as her reconditioning is completed at the R. J. Chandler shipyard.

The Harvard was originally scheduled to sail for San Francisco next week on her maiden voyage, but will not be ready for at least two weeks from date, Mr. Frey stated. After the trial trip of the Harvard a week ago it was found further changes were necessary in the engine-room in order to get top speed out of the craft.

"The Harvard will be put on the run to San Francisco with the Yale as soon as she is completed," General Manager Frey declared. "We will not be affected by the seamen's strike, and our ships will sail regardless of whether or not the strike is settled."

Although it was reported in San Francisco that Capts. Charles F. Parker and Randall Rogers had been appointed to command the Harvard and to alternate with Capt. H. Poulsen on the Yale, Mr. Frey denied that either Capt. Parker or Capt. Rogers had been appointed to the choice positions.

VENGEANCE JUSTIFIED.

Slayer of Turk Butcher Freed.

German Court Holds Boy Who Killed Talaat Pasha Was Not Responsible.

Armenian Saw Mother Slaughtered; Said Spirit Pleaded for Revenge.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BERLIN, June 3.—Salmon Tellerian, the Armenian boy who assassinated Talaat Pasha, former Turkish Grand Vizier, to avenge the slaughter of his mother, was acquitted of murder today in the Berlin District Court. His defense was that at the exhortation of his dead mother, revealed to him in a dream, he had shot the man who ordered the Armenian massacres.

The acquittal, which has been demanded in the Berlin press since the trial began Thursday, came after Dr. Cassirer, a leading German psychiatrist had testified that Telerian could not be held responsible for his act. The horror of seeing his own mother's head split open with an ax and of having witnessed other tragedies had temporarily unbalanced him, the witness said.

MILLION BUTCHERED.

Two strong witnesses for the defense in the closing hours of the trial were Field Marshal Liman Von Sanders, who commanded the Turkish army during the war, and Prof. Lepsuis, who was in Turkey at the time of the massacres. It was brought out that the total number of Armenians slaughtered by the Turks reached 1,000,000, a figure more than double any previous estimate of the extent of the killings.

"It is conservatively estimated," said Prof. Lepsuis, that out of the 1,850,000 Armenians living in Turkey before the war, only 850,000 are left."

Field Marshal Von Sanders corroborated this assertion but attempted to justify the massacres on the ground that the Armenians had opposed Turkish interests and had openly sympathized with the Russians. The witness admitted, however, that Talaat Pasha had been responsible for the executions. The question was raised in the course of Von Sanders's testimony regarding the extent of Germany's responsibility.

REDUCTION TO NIL.

Prof. Lepsuis testified that Talaat Pasha issued official orders calling for exiling and killing of the Armenians. He declared that the German Ambassador to Constantinople had also placed the number of Armenians murdered at 1,000,000, his estimate having been reached through reports made to him by various German consuls.

One official order issued by Talaat, according to Prof. Lepsuis, stated "by exile I mean reduction to nil."

"The Armenians were systematically led to slaughter as soon as the concentration camps became overcrowded," said the professor.

"They were forced out upon the desert, where they were decimated in wholesale fashion.

"The object of the Turks was not to exile the Armenians, but to slaughter them in cold blood, the scheme being to kill off a whole people."

Prof. Lepsuis stated that some 200,000 Armenians in Constantinople and Aleppo escaped death through the intervention in their behalf of Gen. Von Sanders and Gen. Von Der Goltz.

STORM DAMAGE $4,000,000; FOUR DIE IN CLOUDBURST; MARSHALL DAM IN DANGER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BULLETIN

PUEBLO (Colo.) June 4.—National guardsmen are patrolling Pueblo early today, permitting no one to enter the section of the city flooded by waters from the Arkansas River while several fires, started by lightning, raged unchecked in several parts of the city.

Eighteen families were reported rescued from the lowlands and one woman reported her husband had been swept from her sight in the flood waters, while attempting to escape.

About 1:20 a.m. lightning set fire to another building, the identity of which could not be learned.

DENVER, June 4.—Pueblo early today is under water in the worst flood of its history. The last word from that city came shortly after midnight. A dispatch to the Rocky Mountain News was interrupted with this note from the Western Union operator: "I am beating it now. The water is under my feet."

The dispatch said that the lowlands were flooded, hundreds of people had been forced to flee their homes, some of them being rescued in boats. The loss was estimated at $4,000,000. Fire added to the horror of the situation, the lumber yard of the Newton Investment Company bursting into flames which lighted the inundated areas for miles. Loss of life is feared in the city.

The river was normal at 4 o'clock at 5 it was over its banks, and at 10 o'clock every basement in a large part of the business district was full. Postmaster Bellesfield estimated the damage to the postoffice at $100,000.

At Swallows, fifteen miles west of here, a cloudburst sent a wall of water down the river.

The crew of Denver and Rio Grande train No. 2, which arrived here at 9 o'clock, said that when they pulled into Pueblo, the water lapped the car steps.

All night trains of the Denver and Rio Grande and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe roads to Pueblo were annulled.

DAM IS IN DANGER.

A telephone message from Marshall, Colo., at 10:45 o'clock tonight said the Marshall Lake dam, impounding an immense body of water, was still holding, but irrigation officials feared it would break at any minute.

The lake, a private irrigation project, covers 500 acres of land and is sixty-three feet deep. The 200 residents of the mining town, about twenty-five miles from Denver, are spending the night fully dressed, ready to flee. Breaking of the dam would wipe out the town.

At 1 a.m. the telephone operator at Marshall said the dam still was holding. Bombs have been prepared to warn the inhabitants.

Fort Collins and Greeley are without light and power tonight, and the Fort Collins Express announced its regular morning edition would not be issued tomorrow.

Louisville, Colo., seems to have been the center of the storm area. The rain there was so torrential at one time that the Cabeth Building, a two-story structure, collapsed and is reported to be a heap of ruins. The eight persons in the building escaped when they heard the walls crackling. The damage is estimated at several thousand dollars.

FOUR KNOWN DEAD.

Four persons dead, two missing and thousands of dollars damage to farm property and crops were the known result tonight of cloudbursts last night and today in Colorado and Wyoming.

The dead:

Edna Gray, 11, and Margery Gray, 3; drowned while escaping from their home near Pueblo, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray.

Mrs. Carl Davis and child, drowned in Pawnee Creek, northwest of Sterling.

Missing:

Two children of Mrs. Davis, believed drowned.

CLOUDBURST BRINGS DEATH.

The death of the Gray children at Pueblo occurred when a cloudburst early today sent a wall of water several feet high down Dry Creek on the banks of which the Gray family had their home. Scores of persons escaped from their homes, parts of dwellings were washed away and considerable damage done to crops.

A bridge on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad between Pueblo and Canon City was washed out and trains were detoured over the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad. The automobile road to Canon City from Pueblo was rendered impassable.

The death of Mrs. Davis and children in Pawnee Creek was the result of the breaking of the spillway dam on the North Sterling Reservoir. A ditch rider carried a warning to many Russian families on the beet farms and all escaped with the exception of Mrs. Davis and her children. The fate of two children is unknown.

ROADBED WASHED OUT.

Several hundred feet of roadbed on the Colorado and Southern Railway were washed out last night by a cloudburst which centered east of Douglas, Wyo. A bridge on the Yellowstone highway also was swept away.

A tail end of the cloudburst which struck Northeastern Colorado early this afternoon reached Denver

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 3. — If there should be a shortage of ... the incredible wave of ... take place, for example, and we were to go to war with Japan—the Panama Canal would be the enemy's first point of attack.

With the west coast cut off from the east coast except by the long and dangerous voyage around the Cape, the United States would be heavily handicapped at the beginning.

That is what almost happened in 1917, according to a story which has been kept quiet until now.

With the Panama Canal closed, not only would the two halves of the American battleship fleet as at present separated, be kept permanently divided, but in effect the battleship fleet would be destroyed. One of the naval lessons of the war is that the lesser fleet has little or no chance against the greater. The half of the fleet on the side of the continent exposed to enemy attack might be destroyed almost at will.

The moral seems to be either that the fleet be not divided or that the canal be perfectly guarded. That leads up to the story.

"Just before the United States entered the war," said the government official who told the story, "a San Blas Indian approached a certain American official in Panama.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DUBLIN, June 3.—The national shell factory, which was established during the war for the manufacture of ammunition for the British army, was set on fire at 6:30 o'clock this evening. Shortly afterwards the building was blazing fiercely.

The manufacture of shells on the premises had been discontinued for some time, but inside the building were large quantities of military stores and automobiles.

Late tonight Dublin Castle announced that owing to the efficiency of the fire bridage and the assistance rendered by the troops the fire eventually was overcome. A quantity of stores was destroyed, but the repair shops were saved.

While a cricket match was in progress on the Trinity College grounds this evening six pistol shots were fired from Nassau street, which skirts the grounds.

Miss Katherine Wright, a spectator, was shot in the breast and killed.

When the police were attacked they replied with rifles and machine-gun fire. The fight lasted several hours, but in the end the police lost all their arms, including the machine gun. One survivor, a constable, arrived at Wesport at midnight with the news of what had occurred and medical assistance and reinforcements were then dispatched. Two of the wounded men are not expected to recover.

REVIEW UNION LABOR OUTLOOK.

American Federation Will Study Problems.

Discuss Reduction of Rail Workers' Wages.

Denver Mayor Will Open Big Convention.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER, June 3.—A general inventory of the world-wide union labor movement will be taken when the American Federation of Labor holds its annual convention here this month, according to an informal outline of the tentative program of the convention, made public today by Ed Anderson, secretary of the Colorado Federation of Labor.

Delegates to the convention, Mr. Anderson said, will include fifty representatives from England, Canada, Japan, Mexico and Porto Rico. These, with more than 1000 delegates from the United States, will attempt to determine the exact status of union labor, it was said.

One of the questions that will receive much attention, it was stated, is the recent reduction in the wages of railroad employees. The attitude of unions toward that and other wage problems is to be defined, according to present plans.

The Federation of Labor convention will open June 13. Mayor Bailey of Denver, Gov. Sheap of Colorado and Gov. Carey of Wyoming will be speakers.

KEATING WILL SPEAK.

The formal address of welcome will be delivered by Ed Keating, former Congressman from Colorado and now manager of the Plumb Plan League in Washington.

Following Mr. Keating's address the gavel will be turned over to Samuel Gompers, president, who will respond to the address of welcome.

A union labor parade is to precede the convention.

Preliminary to the main convention several group conventions are to be held in Denver hotels and union halls. Next Wednesday the building and metal trades convention will be held. On Thursday the labor trades, including cigarmakers, typographical workers, garment workers, etc., will meet. On Friday the mining trades will convene. On Saturday the International Labor Press Association will hold its conference. Union labor papers representatives from the United States and Canada will attend that meeting.

The American Federation of Labor convention will start on Monday, June 13, and continue to June 25, or possibly to June 28.

a steamboat have no sail, no stack, but alla time go like blazes?'

"The American official told him there was no boat of that sort in Central American waters. He tried to hammer the folly out of the poor, ignorant Indian's head, but it would not hammer. The Indian insisted that he had seen a boat that carried no sails and no smokestack, but, nevertheless, traversed the waters at high speed. So convincing was the tale that the official finally organized a look-see expedition of a few men in an old tugboat.

UNEXPECTED FIND.

"They prowled about the almost uninhabited islands near the Colombia line," said the man who told the story. "One day one of the small boats, idly examining the coast of one of the totally uninhabited islands, noticed the entrance to a small and hidden cove. The boat was taken up the narrow passage, which was almost hidden by the jungle growth and at the end they suddenly came across evidences of human activity.

"There were huge packing cases filled with machinery there, and a trail had been hacked into the jungle. While they were cautiously examining, there came a cry. One of the Indian boatmen had been attacked by a German, but the cry had come from the German. The Indian had almost bashed in the top of his head with a small ax he carried. The white man in command determined to retreat from a vicinity that might prove dangerous and come back with reinforcements. They carried the wounded German with them.

"A little later," said my informant, "an expedition was organized under the Panama flag, to make a further examination. The United States had not declared war at this time, so that our acts were probably as indefensible and illegal as were all of the German acts toward us throughout the first three years of the war. At any rate, we searched the island and the jungle that filled it.

"The parts of seventeen submarines were found hidden in the jungle. In other words, if the discovery had been delayed a very short time seventeen submarines would have been let loose to attack the Panama Canal.

"But for the Immidistire San Blas Indian, the first act of the Germans would undoubtedly have been to blow up the canal locks. No matter what brave words may be spoken now, the fact remains that a submarine force could have unquestionably put the canal out of commission for the remainder of the war. Only a few Germans were found. Whether the others had taken the alarm and fled or whether the main force had not come no one in Washington seems to know.

STORY SUPPRESSED.

The story is a sketchy one, for official quarters have suppressed all mention of it. The fact that the Panama Canal was endangered has not been regarded as a rose in any official wreath. With the canal out of commission the Chilean nitrates would have stopped coming and nitrates mean T.N.T. and gun powder.

It is likewise the fact that at this time the canal was practically undefended against an alert and daring foe. Seventeen submarines operating from a near-by base could have blown the canal gates higher than Popocatapetl.

HOUSE ACTION STARTS FIGHT.

not in concert with one or two nations that ma yarrogate to themselves supremacy in the world, but after discussion with the nations of the world interested in those matters. Furthermore, when we consider the question of disarmament we should consider the question of disarmament on land as well as on sea, and when we consider the question of naval disarmament, we should consider the question of naval disarmament or reduction of armament, and not merely the reduction of programs as the Borah amendment provides."

ACTION POSTPONED.

Representative Kelley of Michigan moved to send the bill to conference without instructions, but Mr. Garret objected and action was postponed until Monday.

Senator Borah said the broadening of his amendment is exactly what the opponents of disarmament want.

"It seems to me if those who are suggesting that the disarmament amendment be broadened to include land forces as well as naval forces, will reflect upon the situation as it now exists in Europe, they will readily conclude that to thus broaden the amendment is to kill the whole proposition," he said. "It is impossible to make any headway at all in the way of land disarmament in Europe, at present.

"At the meeting of the Geneva assembly, France stated plainly and candidly that she would not consider the question of disarmament at this time, and refused to even vote for the principle of disarmament. She gave as her reason that the situation was such that she would not, and could not, take such action now. Six other nations followed her. To include land disarmament, therefore is to kill the matter outright.

"With reference to naval disarmament, the situation is entirely different. The three nations which are now actually engaged in a naval race are the United States, Great Britain and Japan. The French navy is a third-class navy, so recognized, and they are doing practically nothing toward bringing it up to date. The Italian navy is in like condition.

SPENDING BILLIONS.

"But Japan and the United States and Great Britain are spending millions, even billions, in building navies They are the only three powers which bid fair to enter into competition for the next twenty-five or fifty years. So far as land disarmament is concerned, it doesn't make any difference to the United States, as a matter of security, how many troops France has. The House has very wisely limited our army to 150,000. France has an army of 800,000. But it didn't make any difference to the House in curtailing our army that France had 800,000.

"If we are sincerely going forward with the question of disarmament, and sincerely desirous of curtailing expenditures and reducing the chances of war, we will start where we can start and make progress, and that is with the naval powers which are now in actual naval building competition.

"I would not want to be understood as saying that all who have suggested including land forces, as well as naval forces, are against disarmament, but I ask those who are sincerely in favor of disarmament to observe that all those who have been opposed to disarmament, and who are now opposed to it, and all the enemies of the cause, are enthusiastically for including land forces. It was my privilege to read a letter written by a very prominent man in the business world to a party in Washington. I quote almost his exact language in which he says: 'Disarmament can best be handled by delaying it, and the best way to delay it is to insist upon land disarmament as well as sea disarmament. It will then take care of itself.'" wealthiest negro here, declared the belligerent negroes established headquarters at the plant of a negro newspaper early Tuesday evening, where they assembled large quantities of guns and ammunition. Negro runners were sent out to rally reinforcements, he said.

Cleaver said he warned negroes they would cause the negro section to be burned if they did not disperse and disarm.

THREATENED LIFE.

"They only laughed at me and threatened to shoot me," he said. Cleaver, wealthy before the riots, now has only the clothes he wears. He saw a ray of hope, however, as Charles Page, a wealthy oil man, offered to erect a new home for him.

Gurley said, on the night of the riots, he went to the newspaper office about 9 o'clock and found activities far advanced. "Men were coming in singly and in little groups," he said. "Guns and ammunition were being collected from every available source. Many of the men were making open threats and talking in a most turbulent manner."

COMPELLED TO FLEE.

Gurley said he saw, the publisher of the paper and he was counseling the negroes to keep cool and avoid trouble. He said the crowd became so threatening that he left and went to the Courthouse, where he found armed negroes.

"There were not more than forty or fifty men in the crowd of armed negroes who marched upon the Courthouse," Gurley said. "Nearly all had police records. However, there were a few more intelligent ones in the lead."

The citizens' committee expects no difficulty in obtaining the $500,000 it has decided on as the amount necessary to rebuild homes which were owned by negroes.

HOMES AS ATONEMENT.

In announcing intention of restoring negro homes the committee has not yet definitely decided on just what form that restoration shall take. It has several proposals before it. As it is known that the segregation plan here was regarded as one of the most effective in the country, it is intended to build a negro district which will be regarded as peerless. this is to be in great part an atonement for the harm done, as well as an example for other cities.

The Real Estate Exchange has proposed that the burned district, roughly a mile square, be converted into an industrial and wholesale district and a new residence and business district for negroes be built adjacent to it, to the north and east.

The water has risen until the basements of most of the business houses in Pueblo are filled, according to a report received here at 10 o'clock tonight by a telephone company from its Pueblo office. BRIDGE WASHED OUT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LOVELAND (Colo.) June 3.—Water is pouring through a hole four feet square in the south dike of Lake Loveland, on the south edge of this city, and virtually the entire population is aiding in an effort to check the leak. At 9:30 o'clock tonight the Big Thompson River which flows east out of Estes Park, washed out the Colorado and Southern bridge, one-half mile out from here, and a wrecking crew is attempting to build a structure that will enable trains to cross temporarily.

The Loveland-Greeley irrigation ditch is overflowing and water is running more than a foot deep in the streets. It is feared the overflow from the lake will fill the irrigation ditches and endanger this entire section.

A general alarm was sounded at 8 o'clock, and volunteer workers are piling rocks and bags of cement in the hole in the dike in the lake dam.

Basements of homes and business houses are filling with water. Residents in the lower part of the city are moving to higher ground.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

KNOX (Ind.) June 3.—The jury trying the case of Cecil ... 11 years old, charged with the murder of Benny Slavin, 7 years ... discharged by Judge Penticost in the Circuit Court here today ... failed to reach an agreement. The jury had been out eighteen hours ... information concerning the number of ballots taken or whether the ... ecution would order a new trial was divulged. The boy remained ... erty on bond.

The little lad smiled when the jury was discharged, but apparently did not realize just what it meant. He had maintained throughout his trial, which began last Tuesday, that he did not shoot the Slavin boy, at Oro, Ind., last Thanksgiving Day, and that the rifle, which had been leaning against a post, must have been accidentally discharged.

The case was the first in Indiana in which so young a defendant was tried on a murder charge. Most of the witnesses were children ranging from 7 to 11 years of age.

Prosecutor J. A. Diltz announced later that the case would be brought into court again during the October term and that virtually the same evidence would be introduced.

William Christoph, foreman of the jury, told the court there was no chance for it to reach an agreement. Unofficially it was reported that eleven of the jurors voted to return a verdict of manslaughter, while the other held out for murder.

COAST SHIPPERS TO SHUN RAILS.

To Use Shipping Board Boats for Eastern Cargoes.

Perishables to be Placed in Refrigeration.

Roads' High Rates Strangle Fruit Industry.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Shippers of high tonnage and perishable commodities from the Pacific Coast have obtained the promise of the Shipping Board, through R. M. Simmes, district representative in the West, for the shipment of great... er quantities of California, Washington and Oregon fruits and prod... ucts to the eastern seaboard.

The attitude of the board, as outlined by Mr. Simmes, is to place refrigeration in Shipping Board vessels, if the shippers can assure the board that the business will be a profitable one. Members of the combined Pacific Coast Producers' Association, which formed this week to promote canal shipments of fruits and vegetables, assured Mr. Simmes that all refrigerated space provided would be filled on eastern voyages.

NEGOTIATE FOR RATE.

Representatives of the associa... tion are negotiating with intercoastal steamship companies for a rate of not to exceed 90 cents a box from Pacific to Atlantic ports. R. S. Whitcomb, president of the associa... tion, of Los Angeles, said he expects that a fair rate will be secured.

Tentative steps have been taken to supplement the association's prime object to get movement of fruit by water, by consideration of an export trading corporation under terms of the Webb Act to extend markets for western fruits in foreign countries.

INDUSTRY STRANGLED.

C. I. Lewis of Salem, Or., is handling preliminary details. Fruit growers today told Seattle business men the fruit industry is being strangled by high rail rates and that railroads have refused to give emergency rates, as was done with the lumber industry, because growers had not taken advantage of competitive water routes and forced reduction. Port officials on the coast were notified they can expect 4000 carloads of apples for trans-shipment this season, and steamship companies were pledged an additional 4000 carloads of California fruits. One cold-storage house in Seattle, where rail meets sail, can house 20,... 000 tons of apples, and there are additional cooling spaces in other parts of the city. In private warehouses, exclusive of fan-freezing sections, where 4,000,000 pounds are frozen.

In addition to electing Mr. Whitcomb president, J. H. Wade of Wenatchee was elected president of the deciduous branch and vice-president of the association, at the meeting of the association in Seattle today. C. Devere Fairchild of Yakima will be county-treasurer, and the directors at large will be H. F. Davidson of Hood River, Or., and C. I. Lewis of Salem.

CALIFORNIA TO ELECT.

The California bodies interested in the association will elect similar officers and there will be business in both of the fruit-producing sections with Mr. Whitcomb the directing head of all. Those representing the producers in the negotiations with the steamship companies on the Coast, for refrigerator space and rates, are R. M. Gilbert of Yakima; C. Devere Fairchild of Yakima, and J. Curtis Robinson, traffic manager of the Northwestern Fruit Exchange; steamship companies represented are Atlantic Gulf Steamship Company, the Pacific Steamship Company and the United American Lines. R. M. Simmes, district representative of the United States Shipping Board on the Coast, said the board was willing to install refrigerator space if it is shown that it is profitable. Members of the association promptly replied that all refrigerated space would be loaded to capacity and explained that on the return voyage from the East Coast the refrigerated space could be used for general cargo with exclusion of excessively heavy tonnage like steel.

ARIZONA TOWN COSTS COMPILED BY TAXPAYERS' BODY SECRETARY.

PHOENIX, June 3.—Secretary ... of the Taxpayers' Association has been accumulating some statistics of municipal government costs in this Arizona, especially with comparison of the expense jump in the past year. Thirty-one municipalities ... had gross expense in 1919-20 of $2,890,864 and in 1920-21 of $3,811,757, or about 32 per cent rise for the year.

OLD SHIPPING BOARD DENOUNCED IN SENATE

NEVERTHELESS THAT BODY APPROVES $75,000,000 FOR IT IN DEFICIENCY BILL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—After hearing denunciation of the Shipping Board for its mismanagement of the merchant marine, by Senator Kenyon (Republican, Iowa) and others, the Senate today approved a $75,000,000 deficiency appropriation for it, and a few hours later passed the deficiency appropriation bill, carrying a total of $156,000,000, inclusive of the Shipping Board item. This is an increase of $55,000,000 over the measure as passed by the House.

In approving the appropriation the Senate added an amendment offered by Senator Lenroot (Republican, Wisconsin,) directing the board to sell all wooden ships by October 1 next.

The board, in its management of the merchant marine, was described by Senator Kenyon as extravagant, wasteful and "reeking with graft." Other Senators also denounced it. Senator Jones (Wash.) and others, however, while saying there had been extravagance and waste in the past, argued that the new board soon to be appointed should not be penalized through lack of funds for mistakes which were "water over the dam."

Salaries paid board officials and employees were the particular target against which Senator Kenyon shot his hottest invectives.

Estimating that Shipping Board operations were resulting in a daily loss to the government of from $500,000 to $1,000,000, Senator Kenyon asserted that "unless these expenses can be stopped, the American people will not stand for this thing much longer."

SURVEY ATHLETIC NEEDS OF SCHOOLS.

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—In accordance with a resolution adopted by the high school principals of California at their last State convention, Clark W. Hetherington, State supervisor of physical education, has announced the appointment of a committee of five educators to make a survey of the needs of high school athletics for the purpose of reporting back to the school body at its convention next year. The members of the committee are:

H. D. Brasefield, chairman, Fremont High School, Oakland; A. G. Grant, Roseville Union High School, Roseville; Delbert Brunton, Fresno City High School, Fresno; E. L. Van Dellen, Salinas Union High School, Salinas; E. W. Oliver, Los Angeles City High School.

It will be the purpose of the committee to go into the situation as regards athletics thoroughly and to make recommendations as believed necessary for the advancement of this part of school activities.

YOUTH REFUTES MAN'S SELF-DEFENSE PLEA.

WITNESS IN VISALIA DOUBLE-MURDER TRIAL SAW NO WEAPON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

VISALIA, June 3.—Roland Hampton, Lindsay High School student, testified today before the jury trying T. T. Condley, rancher, for the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Silva near Lindsay last March. Hampton asserted he saw no weapon in Mrs. Silva's hand and asserted no lengthy argument occurred between the defendant and Mrs. Silva before the fatal shot was fired. Condley, whose plea is self-defense, departed in an automobile after the shooting, Hampton declared.

Another witness described the finding at the scene of the shooting of a revolver wrapped in cloth and a meat cleaver.

LNEBERGER TAKES FAMILY TO CAPITAL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Congressman Walter F. Lineberger of Long Beach returned to Washington tonight with his family, consisting of Mrs. Lineberg, their four children and his mother. The family arrived by boat in New York today from New Orleans and will remain in Washington for the summer.

Maj. Lineberger has leased a furnished house in one of the near-by suburbs until fall, when he will determine his future plans for a family home here.

HARDING AND WIFE TO TAKE AUTO TRIP.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—President and Mrs. Harding will leave Washington tomorrow by automobile to spend the week-end at the country home of Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, near Valley Forge. They expect to return to Washington Monday.

The ride of 120 miles is expected to take most of the day, but the President hopes to reach his destination in time for a game of golf late in the afternoon. The party will take a picnic lunch, which they plan to eat by the roadside.

PRESIDENT SERENADED BY SCHOOL CHILDREN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—A tribute of music and flowers was paid the President and Mrs. Harding today by the school children of Washington in a ceremony in the White House bringing to a climax the city's Music Week.

More than 50,000 children gathered for the occasion and sang patriotic songs, which the President characterized in a short response as "the supreme music of all my life." After the serenading was over hundreds of bouquets were taken to the stand in the center of the ellipse and heaped at the feet of the President and Mrs. Harding.

HARDING :: VISITS :: ANCIENT :: CHURCH.

Pays Tribute to Heroes Where George Washington Worshiped.

Pohick church, the institution in Virginia where the Father of his Country attended services and was a vestryman for more than twenty-five years, was the scene a few days ago of a memorial service for six men who gave their lives during the World War. President Harding occupied Washington's pew and presented the memorial tablet for the heroes. The picture shows President and Mrs. Harding leaving the little church after the services.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR NATION.

Taft Declares New Budget Bill Fortunate Step for Country—Direct Control of Expenditures by President Leads to Sensible Economy, Much Needed.

BY WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

The country is to be congratulated greatly upon the adoption of an agreement in conference upon the new budget bill which secures its adoption. The difference between the Senate and the House bill has been composed in such a way that the bill remains the very important feature already commented on in these columns, namely, the direct control by the President of the executive is charged with the preparation of the budget from the estimates.

While the bureau of the budget is placed in the Department of the Treasury, it is really a bureau directly under the President for the President appoints the director and the bureau is to prepare the budget for the President under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and the director is to perform the administrative duties personal to the bureau under Presidential rules and regulations. Indeed, the appointment is to be made without the necessity of confirmation by the Senate.

LONG TERM GIVEN.

The President also appoints the controller-general or auditor, to whom the bill gives a long and independent tenure of office. Thus the President is given an instrumentality not only for the preparation of the budget, but for a continuous comparison of efficiency and economy in every department.

The subordination of the bureau to the Secretary of the Treasury, in the sense that it is a part of his department, doubtless will obviate in large degree the objection that the director of the bureau would become a supercabinet officer and is therefore quite unobjectionable. It is well that all bureaus should be within department organization except possibly the Interstate Commerce Commission, in so far as it exercises a quasi-judicial function in fixing rates. So far as it is an administrative body, it ought to be in the Department of Commerce; but that is another story.

REORGANIZATION STEP.

Suffice it to say that one of the most important steps in reorganization of the government for an effective business administration is taken in this machinery for a budget. As President Harding has pointed out already, it will not of itself substantially reduce the expenditures of the government, unless economy is exercised by Congress in cutting off wasteful objects provided by law; but it will make for the careful trimming of needed expenditures within the limits of effectiveness, and it will give to Congress, by the exposition of a scientific budget, a full opportunity to know what each object which is proposed is likely to cost, with a sense of proportion enabling it to weigh properly the advantage or disadvantage of attempting any particular legislative purpose. The object of a budget is exact knowledge of income and outgo upon which the legislative body, which is ultimately responsible, can act.

"COUSIN" EXPECTS AID OF HARDING.

EVERETT THINKS WARREN OUGHT TO FREE HIM FROM PRISON IN FEW MONTHS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3. — Everett Harding, who posed as a cousin of the President, and who was yesterday sentenced to serve fifteen months in the Federal prison for impersonating a government official, expressed a belief today that President Harding would see to it that he did not serve the sentence.

"I expect to be released from prison in a few months," he said. "I do not think my kin, President Harding, will let me suffer without interfering. I worked hard for his election and I do not think it is too much to expect that he will do something for me, his second cousin."

Harding said he would pay back all the money he had "borrowed" as soon as he could. "My plans for the future are very uncertain," he continued, "but I will not engage in politics."

MME. CURIE SHIES AT TALKING STYLES.

FAMOUS WOMAN SCIENTIST IS MORE INTERESTED IN CHICAGO RIVER.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Mme. Curie, famous woman scientist, stopped off in Chicago today for a few hours on her way West. The codiscoverer of radium was met at the train by a committee, which had planned to show her the city. She appeared to be more interested in the Chicago River, which flows uphill, than any of the other attractions of the city, and when reporters sought to question her regarding her views of styles and kindred subjects, she plied them with questions about the river.

Mme. Curie made a strange contrast to the magnificent settings of the Blackstone Hotel, where she stopped for two hours. She wore plain cotton stockings, shoes that sadly needed a shine and a straw hat of ancient design.

After two hours in Chicago, Mme. Curie departed for Grand Canyon, Ariz. Her two daughters, Irene, 16 years old, and Eva, 23 years old, were with her.

SOVIET STATEMENT CONDEMNS CAMPAIGN.

RUSSIAN REDS ALLEGE FALSE REPORTS ARE BEING SPREAD IN UNITED STATES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, June 3.—The correspondent at Moscow of the Daily Herald, the labor organ, says the soviet government has issued a statement "exposing the malicious antisoviet campaign conducted in the American press by enemies of soviet Russia."

According to the correspondent, the statement cites alleged stories of wholesale unwarranted arrests and declares these are inventions which are all the more ludicrous because the authors of the stories declare the aim of the soviet is to force a renewal of relations with the United States.

"Russia," the correspondent quotes from the statement. "Does not wish to force other nations to new relations with her. She desires primarily noninterference in her internal affairs and mutually beneficial relations with the rest of the world. This aim she hopes to achieve by the conclusion of agreements attained through friendly negotiations."

BUSINESS DEFLATION STILL INCOMPLETE.

SLOWNESS OF RECOVERY DUE TO GREAT FUNDS TIED UP IN FROZEN CREDITS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—The deflation process in business is still far from complete, according to a report to the National Electric Light Association convention today. The report was submitted by a committee headed by Sidney Z. Mitchell of New York.

"The slowness of recovery in financial conditions is due primarily to the enormous amount of banking funds tied up in frozen credits and by the further enormous demand for money for our government's treasury bills, by hundreds of millions in foreign loans which are being floated here, by the great investment demand for money to meet large maturing obligations and to satisfy the most pressing pent-up demands for housing and corporate construction," the report declared. Milan R. Bump of New York, was elected president of the association.

SENATE AMENDS BILL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Amendments to the deficiency bill appropriating an additional $500,000 for the speedway hospital project in Chicago, and $750,000 for a government hospital at Dawson Springs, Ky., were adopted today by the Senate.

YEGGS ARE ROUTED IN GUN FIGHT.

More Than Hundred Shots Exchanged With Lookout as Pals Seek to Rob Store.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

FRESNO, June 3.—Four burglars, evidently of the yegg type, early this morning were routed when they attempted to break into the Rolinda Cash Store, ten miles west of Fresno. G. A. Houghton, one of the proprietors of the store, with a shotgun, and Carl E. Richardson, with a revolver, exchanged about 100 shots with one of the strangers, who fired an automatic pistol. Richardson is an ex-lieutenant of marines.

Houghton and Richardson were in a house ninety feet from the store. They observed the men before they had obtained entrance. When they struck a light a voice commanded them to remain inside, and there was a rattle of pistol shots as a warning. Houghton got his shotgun, but Richardson found his pistol was unloaded and in the darkness he could not find the shells. He lighted a match, and there were more shots from the man, who, it appeared, had been detailed to hold them in the house. At last the revolver was loaded, and Richardson opened fire while Houghton stepped to the door and blazed away with the shotgun at the silhouetted figures about his store.

The fusillade surprised the burglars and they soon fled. The defenders of the store were untouched, and there was no evidence that any of the burglars had been wounded. However, the holes in the walls of the store and the house showed the fire had been well directed, despite the darkness.

SCHEME TO PREVENT EXCESSIVE IMPORTS.

WOULD GIVE TO PRESIDENT POWER TO RESTRICT SPECIFIC COMMODITIES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 2.—A new scheme to prevent excessive importations on the eve of final enactment of permanent tariff legislation was presented to the House today by Representative Little of Kansas. A resolution offered by Mr. Little gives the President power to issue a proclamation limiting imports of specific commodities for a ninety-day period or less. The resolution is designed as a substitute for the Longworth resolution giving authority to the Ways and Means Committee to make the rates of the permanent tariff bill effective immediately upon introduction.

No arrangement has been made for another caucus of Republican members of the House on the Longworth resolution. The prospect seems to be that the matter may be allowed to rest until the permanent tariff bill is reported from the Ways and Means Committee and that an effort will be made then to put through a resolution making the rates of duty effective at once.

RHINE EVACUATION LLOYD GEORGE'S AIM.

ONE REASON WHY PREMIER IS INSISTING ON MEETING OF SUPREME COUNCIL.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, June 3.—Agreement on a date for the evacuations of Duesseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort and the suppression of the customs barrier on the right bank of the Rhine are the real reasons why Prime Minister Lloyd George is insisting on an immediate session of the supreme council according to well informed circles here. They say this although the British prime minister's avowed reason for the imminent conference was to take up the Upper Silesian problem. Furthermore he suggested the Turk-Greek crisis was another pressing cause for a session.

The French realize that the question of the duration of the sanctions will certainly be brought up.

BERLIN, June 3.—It was announced here that Chancellor Wirth has arranged with Bavaria for the demobilization of the Bavarian civilian military organization known as the Orgesch. This is of vital importance as it removes one of the main French arguments for the taking of military measures against Germany.

JOHNSON BAKES HIS PLUM PIE.

Seeks to Patch Up Political Fence in State.

If Another Term is Possible He'll Ditch Hearst.

If Program Fails There's the New York Fleshpots.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—With the arrival here of John T. Williams of San Francisco, Johnson, lieutenant and candidate for the office of United States Attorney for the northern district of California, the battle lines for the renomination of Senator Johnson were disclosed.

Lieutenants of Johnson are busy throughout the State patching up the fences so that Johnson will have no opposition for the Republican nomination. All of the Federal patronage which can be controlled in California is to be used to keep out any possible opposition within the party and give the present Senator a walkover as far as the Republican primaries are concerned.

HIRAM HOLDS THEM.

Reports have been received from these scouts from all over the State and for the most part they report pleasing progress of unanimity. From Southern California, after a survey made by Williams and other trusted managers for Johnson, reports come that all the old invincibles are now eating out of Hiram's hand and will not lift a finger to get a good strong man to run for the Republican nomination for Senator, though both of the Senators now in office are from the northern part of the State.

Former Senator Flint, who has a host of friends and could be easily nominated, according to these reports, has been ambushed and will take the Johnson program without change or variation. Fire eaters of olden days appear complacent and willing for Hiram to come back to Washington for six years more so that he can get at least part of the spotlight on the public stage to out-Bryan, Bryan, and be a candidate for President in 1924 and also in 1928 and then on ad lib.

BAKING PLUM PIE.

In order to get Senator Shortridge to sit in on the comeback Johnson plans Williams made the novel proposal this morning that he be appointed United States Attorney for Northern California for the period starting now and terminating after the re-election of Johnson a year from next November, at which time he would resign and the place could then be filled by Senator Shortridge as he sees fit.

Practically all of the other fat plums all over the State are to be disposed of on the same basis, and this is the reason why there will be such a fight over the internal revenue collectorship in Los Angeles. There is more patronage connected with this office than any other Federal office in the State of California, and Johnson and his stalwarts want to use it to ease him back into the voluptuous security of the Senate with its limelight perquisites.

FORGET WILLIE?

If Johnson is able to work this program through he will forget the flashpots offered him by Mayor Hylan and W. R. Hearst in New York and will fight for the middle of the stage with his Presidential lightning rod up and ready for any emergency. What is making Johnson and his friends nervous is that some stalwart Republican south of the Tehachepi who has not been caught in the harmony bird lime will go out gunning for the Republican nomination, split the vote, cause a party schism and let the Hon. James Duval Phelan return to the Senate after a brief two-year vacation. In spite of the Republican landslide in the Presidential year, Phelan made a wonderful showing and has made hundreds of thousands of friends regardless of politics by the way he looked after California matters. He likes the Senate and he and his friends will spend all the money necessary to send him back to the marble room.

Unless Hiram can insure no opposition within the Republican party the coming Senatorial election does not look to him like a cinch, and he wants this straightened out before he says good-by to the meal ticket in New York furnished by Hylan, Hearst and company.

LAUDS UNITED STATES' ROLE IN WORLD WAR.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BRUSSELS, June 3.—M. Jaspar, the Foreign Minister, speaking here today on the foreign policy of Belgium, paid homage to the incomparable role played by the United States during the war, in which it participated "for the ideal of justice and right, thus setting a fine moral example."

The United States proved it remained united with the Entente, he declared, when it refused to transmit the German reparations proposals to the Supreme Council, thus rendering a fresh service to the cause of peace.

AUTO FATALITY RECORD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Forty-three persons were killed by automobiles in Chicago and Cook county during May, according to a report made public today. This is the highest number ever recorded in one month.

AGRICULTURAL BILLS SIGNED.

Governor Puts Signature on Thirty-five.

Appropriation and Budget Measures Okehed.

Salaries of Several State Officials Increased.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—Thirty-five bills pertaining to agriculture were signed last night and today by Gov. Stephens. Included in the list was Assembly Bill 1126, by Bernard, known as the California Warehouse Act, which provides the machinery for making the grain standardisation law effective and regulates the bulk handling of grain in conformity with the United States Warehouse Act. It carries an appropriation of $25,000.

TUBERCULOSIS BILL.

Senate Bill 95, by Rigdon, also approved, provides for the prevention of tuberculosis in cattle. It is known as the "tuberculosis free area bill."

The other bills are:

Senate Bill 204, by Jones, which places the County Horticultural Commissioners of California under the direction of the State Director of Agriculture in the enforcement of quarantine and standardization laws, and any other laws which may deal with intercounty movements of commodities, which are of vital interest to the agricultural industry of the State. It also authorizes the appointment of more than one deputy horticultural commissioner in counties where the work is of such volume as to require it. Failure of any horticultural commissioner to perform the duties, as directed by the State Director of Agriculture, will constitute "neglect of duty" and the commissioner may be summoned before the trial board created to handle such cases.

This trial board is provided for by Senate Bill 202, by Jones. This bill also provides that State-wide examinations shall be held to fill positions as county horticultural commissioners, and that the successful candidates at such examinations shall be eligible for appointment to any vacancy in the position in the entire State.

Senate Bill 201, known as the California fruit and vegetable standardization law, amends the same law as enacted in 1917, in several particulars, which experience has shown to be necessary. It provides that all grapes, whether for table or manufacturing use, shall contain a minimum sugar content of 16 or 17 per cent, according to variety, but permits the shipment of grapes of lower sugar content for manufacturing use, under permit of the Department of Agriculture. This bill was approved by the grape producers.

PURE SEED BILL.

Senate Bill 6, by Rigdon, known as the "pure seed bill," requires a truthful statement of the contents of seed containers of five pounds or more on the label.

Senate Bill 7 appropriates $15,000 for a seed testing laboratory to aid in enforcing Senate Bill 6.

Senate Bill 152, known as the California Grain Standardization Act, is a new law, defining all grains, in conformity with the United States Grain Standards Act, and is approved by Federal authorities, growers, shippers and buyers of grain. It provides that the Federal grain standards shall automatically become effective.

Assembly Bill 350, by Parker, authorizes a license fee for the business of conducting a nursery or selling nursery stock in the State.

Assembly Bill 540, by Cleary, amends the Political Code section relating to the duties of horticultural commissioners. It provides for more effective method of enforcing liens against property that has been cleaned up by the horticultural commissioners.

Senate Bill 203, by Jones, is to allow the county horticultural inspectors and deputies to receive increased compensation. At present, they can receive only $3 per day. This bill allows the payment of whatever amount may be fixed by the County Horticultural Commissioner and Board of Supervisors.

Senate Bill 275, by Harris, amends the Dairy Products Act of 1911, changes the standards for the manufacture of cheese, strengthens the pasteurization feature and defines goat and sheep milk.

TO IMPORT INSECTS.

Assembly Bill 892, by Hume, authorizes the Director of Agriculture to import beneficial insects from foreign countries and authorises the use of $10,000 of their funds for this purpose.

Assembly Bill 800, by White, creates a board composed of a member of the college of agriculture, the Director of Agriculture, and three agriculturists appointed by the Governor to investigate sites for an agricultural college in Southern California.

Assembly Bill 38 by Cummings, provides for the voluntary testing of cattle by the owner. Test to be made by the Department of Agriculture.

Senate Bill 234 by Rigdon, provides that no cattle be sold under estray laws without notification of the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of ascertaining if branded or marked cattle are being sold without notification to the owner.

Assembly Bill 1204, by Powers, provides for the inspection of foreign cold storage meats and their identification when sold.

Senate Bill 231, by Boggs, the noxious weed act, provides for the declaration of noxious weed free areas and defines noxious weeds.

Senate Bill 383, by Rush, provides for the eradication of scabies in sheep.

ARIZONA MAY NOT SO DRY.

Nevertheless Spring Round-ups Are Withheld.

Insufficient Grass for Herds is the Cause.

Lean Cattle Shipped for Feed in California.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, June 3.—In consideration of the drought within Arizona, the Weather Bureau shows that May was not as dry as usual. The normal rainfall for the month is only .02 of an inch, while this year there was precipitation of .17 inches. But the total of May 31 from the first of the year was only .46 inches, compared with a normal of 2.81 inches.

Throughout Central and Southern Arizona the usual spring round-ups have been held in very few localities, as grass was not available for the herds brought together.

CATTLE ARE LEAN.

There have been heavy shipments of very lean cattle from Globe, Wilcox and other points, mainly to Barstow and other California feeding points and to Colorado, Nebraska and Northwestern States. Three thousand head are now being shipped from Wilcox. Losses of range stock are reported from the San Rafael Valley in Santa Cruz county and from the upper Gila, the Sulphur Springs and San Simon Valley. A large part of the Indian cattle on the Papago reservation are said to have died. Wherever possible, owners are feeding small rations of cottonseed meal, which is being trucked out even 100 miles from a railroad. In some of the plains sections, cattlemen are using gasoline torches to burn the spines from prickly pear and other cactus.

FOREST FIRES RAGE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NOGALES, June 3.—Forest fires are sweeping the mountains of Sonora and Santa Cruz county to the south and east of Nogales, the smoke from being plainly visible from the city and bringing a summerlike torridity. The hills are very dry and the scanty vegetation is being consumed by the sweep of the flames, together with great areas of timber.

INTERNATIONAL TROUBLE.

For years there has been international trouble west of Douglas, due to the fact that the Naco wagon road lies very close to the border, though generally to the southward. Both American and Mexican soldiers have trespassed at times on foreign territory. This is to be corrected in a degree by the Mexican government, which will continue for five miles a wire fence erected east of Naco, with an additional mile of fence near the old La Morita customhouse. The road will be moved a half mile south of the fence, wholly upon Mexican soil. Between the

FARM BUREAU CHIEFS JUMP INTO DISPUTE.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE CONTROVERSY ENGAGES THEIR ATTENTION.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Officials of the American Farm Bureau Federation have jumped in the Board of Trade controversy to correct an "error."

Fearing that the farmers' wool pooling and other co-operative projects might be misunderstood as a result of information given by Joseph P. Griffin, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, in the pit debate at Springfield Wednesday, J. W. Coverdale, secretary of the Federal Farm Bureau, made the following statement tonight:

"In his zeal to defend the Chicago Board of Trade, President Joseph P. Griffin has seen fit to attack the entire farmers' co-operative movement. He says that many Illinois farmers pooled their wool a year or more ago on promise of receiving good prices for it and that the wool is as yet unsold. What are the facts? In 1919, Illinois farmers pooled 493,822 pounds of wool. So well satisfied were they with the results of this new method of selling wool co-operatively that in 1920 they came back and consigned 1,577,007 pounds of wool to the pool. Despite the fact that Mr. Griffin says that the wool is yet unsold, our co-operative wool marketing department shows that all except 70,000 pounds have been sold at a price running from 22 to 47 cents, which is from six to ten cents more per pound than these farmers were offered for their wool clip by the local wool buyers. The bureau has sold 1,100,000 pounds to one mill. This is the largest single sale of wool on record.

"The fact that Illinois farmers, as well as the farmers in seventeen other States who have joined our State farm bureau wool pools are well satisfied with co-operative marketing methods, is evidenced by an increase of 30 per cent in orders for wool sacks from farm bureau members.

"If Mr. Griffin is as well informed about the grain trade as he is about the wool pool, it would seem to us that it would be necessary for the Chicago Board of Trade to submit to proper regulation."

INCREASED QUOTA OF SUNSHINE POSSIBLE.

SIR OLIVER LODGE SAYS AURORA BOREALIS VISIT MAY SHOW GOOD RESULTS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, June 3.—Recent solar eruptions, which caused brilliant auroras and disorganized cable and telegraph service throughout the world may result in the earth receiving an increased quota of sunshine during the remainder of the year, says Sir Oliver Lodge, the noted scientist.

He ventures the opinion that the electrified particles thrown off by the sun during the disturbance, may assist in the development of vegetation and reduce the amount of dust held suspended in the atmosphere.

Sir Oliver says the magnetic disturbances that attended the solar eruption were due to a torrent of electrified particles, which constituted a gigantic electric current. This opinion is also held by Camille Flammarion, the veteran French astronomer, who has expressed surprise at a storm of such unusual violence occurring at this time.

ROW IN HOUSE OVER BORAH AMENDMENT.

DISARMAMENT DISAGREEMENT BLOCKS REFERENCE TO NAVAL BILL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Disagreement in the House over the Borah disarmament amendment blocked today reference of the Naval Appropriation Bill to conference.

Representative Garrett, Tennessee, acting Democratic leader, declared House conferees should be instructed to agree to the Borah amendment, broadened to include the invitations for both naval and land disarmament negotiations with other powers besides Great Britain and Japan.

Republican spokesmen contended that the conferees should be given free rein.

Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, characterized the Borah amndment as "narrow, restricted and unsatisfactory."

GOVERNMENT ISLAND AIR PORT PLANNED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

OAKLAND, June 3.—Plans for the establishment of a Federal air port at Government Island, in Oakland Estuary, were materially promoted today by an official inspection made by Col. H. H. Arnold, chief of the San Francisco division of the United States Air Forces. Concluding an aerial and land inspection of the site, Col. Arnold declared he would recommend its being utilized for that purpose. Col. Arnold was received by the District Aircraft Corporation and the Chamber of Commerce, and was guest of honor at a luncheon this noon.

BONTOG PROVINCE NATIVES COMPLAIN.

TELL AMERICAN MISSION THEY HAVE TO PAY HIGH TAXES AND DO MORE WORK.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CERVANTES (P. I.) June 3.—After climbing over high mountains, riding through pine forests, and fording streams the Forbes party reached Bontoc province, where they found a general positive desire to have the Americans resume control of the government and schools. Filipinos have run both the government and the schools of the province during the last few years.

The people of this province differ in appearance, dress, customs and language from those on the other side of the range. They are stronger, more savage, and bolder than the others.

A delegation of these mountaineers complained to Mr. Forbes that their taxes were three pesos a year while the people in the lowlands only paid two. They also said they had to work on the roads ten days a year while the Christians only had to work five. They declared they were made slaves and forced to carry heavy cargoes on their heads over the mountains. Mr. Forbes was expected to remedy the situation. The high taxes are supposed to be part of a plot to drive these people out of the mountains, as they constitute a difficult problem for the Filipinos.

Welcome was extended to mothers of the State's heroes and heroines this afternoon by Mayor Davie and Mrs. Waterhouse. Response was made by Mrs. M. B. Dudley of Los Angeles. Greetings of the national organization were brought to the State body by Mrs. A. W. Clements, Sacramento.

WENT TO ARCTIC WITH GREELEY.

Survivor of Ill-fated Party Dies in San Jose.

Two Members of Expedition Living in East

Maurice Connell Also Federal Weather Man.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN JOSE, June 3.—Maurice Connell, United States weather forecaster here, and said to have been one of three surviving members of the Greeley expedition to the Arctic, 1881-84, died here today, aged 69 years.

Of Greeley's party, which numbered twenty-five when it set out for the frozen north on Aug. 12, 1881, only seven were alive when the third relief expedition, under Winfield Schley, later a rear-admiral, rescued them.

Connell, one of the seven, would have died, he often said, had relief been delayed even a few days longer.

TWO STILL ALIVE.

Two members of the party still are alive and reside in the East. The Greeley expedition had set out in 1881 to establish an international polar station. It reached 83 degrees, 24 minutes, latitude, then the farthest north, discovered new land north of Greenland, and crossed Grinnel Land to the great Polar Sea. Then came the tragedy. The expedition failed to meet the relief ship Proteus, which had been crushed in the ice, and was forced to take refuge near Bleak Cape Sabine, where many perished of starvation. One member of the party was ordered shot by Greeley for the repeated theft of food. When Commander Schley found the seven survivors, they had been forty-two hours without food of any kind.

LAY IN STUPOR.

Connell, unconscious when found, was for the moment thought dead. For three days he lay in a stupor and when revived aboard the ship he thought himself in another world.

"When I was weighed three weeks after the rescue, I weighed 102 pounds—my normal weight at that time was aroud 175 pounds," Connell said, in telling of his experiences.

Before going north Connell for ten years served in the Army in the West. He fought Apaches in Texas and Arizona, Sioux in Nebraska, served under Gen. Cook, a famous Indian fighter, and was one of the few survivors of the command near the battle of Little Big Horn, in which Gen. Custer lost his life.

Connell was placed on the retired list of the Army in 1901, and in 1905 became weather forecaster in San Jose.

HARVARD RECEIVES BERLIN DOCUMENT.

OFFICIAL WAR PAPERS AND PERIODICALS ADDED TO LIBRARY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) June 3.—Official German war documents and war-time periodicals, some presented by Ellis L. Dresel, American Commissioner at Berlin, have just been added to the collection being made at the Harvard University library.

A study of several hundred war proclamations dealing with regulations for the civilian population, sales of food, war loans, etc., showed that several issued apparently prior to Aug. 1, 1914, were not dated. The dated posters began on August 1 and thereafter every proclamation bore a date. The question whether the dates on the earlier publications were omitted by accident or because they were prepared in advance, is one on which, the Harvard announcement says, historians will draw their own conclusions.

MEXICAN CONDITIONS PLEASE LEGISLATORS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

LANSING (Mich.) June 3.—A resolution congratulating the people of Mexico upon the election of Gen. Alvaro Obregon to the Presidency, and commending "the new era of peace and prosperity" since his inauguration, was adopted by both branches of the Michigan Legislature last night.

The action followed a visit by State Senator Schliemer of Arizona, who told the Michigan Legislature of conditions along the southern border.

Suspected Dynamiters Arrested.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

MEXICO CITY, June 3.—Carlos Coletti and Dominico Domingo, Italians, alleged to be wanted by the police in Cleveland, O., on the charge of having dynamited the home of a banker in that city recently, were arrested here last night by Federal authorities. United States detectives are understood to have assisted in making the arrests. It is reported the American Charge d'Affaires here has made representations to the government, asking that the men be deported to the United States.

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The disarmament question developed into a three-cornered contest with the Senate for an agreement with England and Japan on navy reduction, the House favoring land, as well as naval disarmament by all powers, and the President opposing any legislation in order to keep free hand in dealing with foreign affairs.

President Harding has offered the chairmanship of the United States Shipping Board to A. D. Lasker of Chicago, whose friends here tonight reported that he had agreed to accept the post.

President Harding favors a readjustment of freight rates rather than a horizontal reduction. This is in line with the views of members of the I.C.C. and of railway executives.

Farm organizations have started a movement to amend the meat packer control bill, as passed by the House. They want it stiffened up and independent live-stock commission created, instead of placing authority in the hands of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Representative Little's resolution authorizing the President to limit imports while tariff revision is in progress, is opposed by Chairman Fordney of the House Ways and Means Committee, who is against anything resembling an embargo.

SLAYER OF WIFE AND DAUGHTER IS HANGED.

MAN WHO KILLED WOMEN IN BAY CITY PLEADED INTOXICATION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN QUENTIN, June 3.—George C. Williams was hanged today at the State prison here for the murder of his wife and his stepdaughter, Rose Alves, 23. He shot them as they alighted from a street car in San Francisco, Feb. 7, 1920.

Williams was calm and collected as he entered the death chamber. The trap was sprung at 10.14 and he was pronounced dead fourteen minutes later.

Williams and his wife had separated and she sued him for divorce. It was after his attempts at reconciliation failed that he shot Mrs. Williams and her daughter. At a hearing before a lunacy commission Williams was declared sane and he was found guilty of murder by a jury which included two women. An aplication for a new trial was denied as were appeals for executive clemency made to Gov. Stephens.

It was always claimed by Williams that he was intoxicated when the shooting took place and had no recollection of the crime.

Until the introduction of this little aristocrat of instruments about eight years ago it would have been impossible to secure any baby grand piano comparable with this in quality for less than a thousand dollars. Well might the manufacturers of this piano have placed a price of $1,000 or more upon it. But they had a different object. Their purpose was to produce, through modern efficiency, concentration on but one grand, and great volume of production, an instrument to sell for several hundred dollars less. And this purpose has been admirably accomplished in the

SERGEANT RICE GAINS 26 POUNDS

Had Gone Down To Only 109 Pounds in Weight

Could Find Nothing to Restore His Health

Says Tanlac Proved to Be Just What He Needed.

Sergeant W. H. Rice, Arcadia Bilhoon School, U. S. A., non-commissioned officer in charge of Transportation, is now an enthusiastic witness to the remarkable reconstructive powers of Tanlac. Sergeant Rice has a record of fourteen years of service in the army, nine years of which were spent in the tropics. He has been at his present station for one year. Here is his statement:

"I certainly can say a good word for Tanlac, and am glad to do so; for I gained twenty-six pounds in weight by taking it and feel better than I have in years. Last November, I had to make a trip to San Diego. I caught an awful cold along about then and it seemed that I just could not shake it off. I was quite ill in the hospital for a week, and after getting out I felt absolutely all in. I had lost my appetite, and what little I did eat seemed to do me more harm than good. I went down to only a hundred and nine pounds, and nothing that I tried did me any good.

"My wife insisted that I try Tanlac and soon after finishing my first bottle I began to pick up, could sleep better and was getting stronger. Well, I took six bottles, and went up to a hundred and thirty-five pounds in weight, and was feeling fine in every way. It's been quite a while since I took any, but my health is still good and it's a pleasure to praise Tanlac."

OFFICERS TABOO NEW BOYS' SPORT

Game Which Shocks Parents is Under Ban.

Long Beach Frames Ordinance to Govern Dances.

Traffic Officer Weds Girl He Reprimanded.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, June 3.—County authorities have taken cognizance of and made the first steps toward the suppression of a juvenile pastime just discovered in this city. The new game that has aroused the mothers of the city is called "Pants" because of the large part that trousers or rather the lack of them take in the sport.

It works this way: A new boy moves into the neighborhood. He soon falls victim to the "gang," which proceeds with much gusto to deprive him of his pantaloons. The knickers are then weighted down and thrown over the wires of a telephone or telegraph line. The exciting spectacle to juvenile eyes, at least, of a near-naked boy or one clad merely in his underwear, climbing a telephone pole for his pants ensues.

Boys failing victims to the new and novel entertainment have ranged from 5 to 13 years of age, reports to the police show. The sport, regarded by parents to be hazardous, not to say horrifying, has grown to such proportions that the police have been appealed to. The matter, taken up with Dep. Dist.-Atty. E. J. Dennison, has resulted in the appointment to this city until the game is eradicated, of Ida Wright Jones of the juvenile delinquency department of the District Attorney's office, whose duty will be to see that all boys climbing telephone poles in Long Beach in the future shall wear pants.

City Commissioners today passed on first and second readings Commissioner Peek's revised dance hall ordinance. Any place where dancing is permitted except in private homes is a public dance hall under the terms of this ordinance and subject to its terms.

Dancing will not be permitted after midnight except on New Year's Eve. Minors under 17 must be accompanied by parent or guardian on entering a dance hall, and the manager is privileged to require guests to register their true names and ages. No suggestive dances will be permitted.

Miss Jessie Auckland, 24 years old, daughter of Mrs. Jane Auckland of 911 Cedar avenue, this city, was reprimanded for a slight traffic violation at Broadway and Pine street six months ago by Traffic Officer Robert Houghton.

Today it was announced at the Police Station that the pair were married last week in La Junta, Colo., where Mr. Auckland has business interests. The newlyweds arrived in Long Beach from Colorado late last night after a 1400-mile motor trip. The traffic officer is 32 years old and will resume his duties again tomorrow. The bride's father is a wealthy retired cattleman.

Porterville Organization Opens New Headquarters.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTERVILLE, June 3.—One of the social events of the season which marks a new epoch in the life of Porterville club women is the formal opening this afternoon and evening of the Porterville Improvement Clubhouse.

The organization until recently was purely civic in its work, but departmental features now offer various opportunities to Porterville women who have labored long and hard that they might have a real club home. Costing about $15,000 and modern in every detail, the building is adapted to a variety of functions.

Club directors will act as hostesses at open house, while special musical and dancing features, with an interesting lecturer, will provide entertainment for the guests.

YEGGMEN FLEE.

Prompt Work of Officer Saves Valuable Property.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ONTARIO, June 3.—Prompt work this morning on the part of Patrolman A. J. Koller in routing two burglars after they had carried large quantities of silk gowns, fine lingerie and other articles from the New York Store at 120 West A street, supposedly with the intention of carrying it away in a motor car, saved A. W. Caveness, proprietor of the shop, a loss of more than $2000, according to his own estimate.

Koller pursued one of the bandits down an alley at the rear of the store and fired four shots after him, but without effect. The bandit is believed to have joined his companion and made his escape by automobile.

It was shortly before 8 o'clock, almost daylight, when Koller, doing his regular beat along A street, noticed that a light usually left burning in the rear of the store was extinguished, and by looking into the door could see a rear window open.

Hastening to the rear, the officer met a man emerging from a north-and-south alley, whom he took to be a laborer going to work and passed him up, and continuing around saw a man standing near the rear of the New York store, who immediately started to run. Koller called to him to halt and opened fire, but the fellow made his escape.

Other officers were summoned and a search made, but without result. Entrance was gained by breaking a rear window, and merchandise had been heaped in two piles in the alley ready for removal. Mr. Caveness believes that he entire loot of the bandits was recovered.

GIANTS PLAY TODAY.

With every other all-star aggregation in Los Angeles taking a chance at trimming the Alexander Giants, Mike Hollingsworth means to be no exception and will send his bright lights against the league leaders this afternoon at Alexander Field. Thirty-second street and Long Beach avenue.

Like old wine, the Giants seem to get better as they go along and don't even fear the worst tomorrow, when a scheduled Managers Summer League game is played with the Wholesale Terminals, also at Alexander Park.

STANFORD WINS ALL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Leland Stanford's two-man tennis team won all matches in the dual meet against the University of Chicago today.

Phil Neer of Stanford downed Perry Segal, Chicago, 6-3, 6-1, in singles and J. M. Davies of Stanford defeated Harry Vories, Jr., Chicago, 6-2, 6-1.

Neer and Davies won from Segal and Vories in the doubles, 6-3, 6-4. The Chicago doubles team recently won the championship of the western intercollegiate conference.

UPLANDS GUN SHOOT.

A couple squads of Vernon Gun Club shooters in charge of A. W. Bruner will leave for the Uplands Gun Club tomorrow morning, where a five-man team race is scheduled with an Upland team.

On June 26, the Vernon club will hold its second registered club shoot at 100 targets. An additional 100 targets will be shot at with the Stan Bruner $100 purse up.

"KING" KELLY IS IN LOS ANGELES.

Fred "King" Kelly, former star hurdler of U.S.C. and one-time national champion, breezed into town yesterday for a short stay in the locality where he achieved many of his great triumphs. The "King" is in the commercial airplane business, having taken up that angle of flying after his discharge from the Army.

DOC CRANDALL LASHES TIGERS.

Big Heaver Has One of His Good Afternoons.

Seraphs Treat Bengal Pitchers Rather Roughly.

Red Killefer Again Creeps Back Into First Division.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Los Angeles and Vernon are as shifting as the sands of the desert on a windy day.

They passed each other going and coming again yesterday. The Tigers splashed into the second division, while the Angels bounced back into the first. It's the old, old law of displacement. Where something goes in, something must come out.

HAS TROUBLE.

Mr. William Essick experienced chronic trouble with his pitchers, and Los Angeles copped, 7 to 2, behind Herculean heaving by Doc Crandall, the great homeopath. Doc refused to write prescriptions for any more than two Vernon runs, and this made the Tigers mighty sick. Inning after inning they crawled back into their hole and licked their wounds with parched tongues.

Vernon looked like a well ball team in the second only, when the rococo Mr. French placed a double behind singles by Smith and Locker. At other times in front of Crandall's pitching, the Vernon machine looked like a mud pie in the hands of a future housekeeper. The hand which rocks the mud pie later rules the family bank account.

FISH THIRSTY.

Mr. Jake Croter made his reappearance behind the plate after an absence of one day in the field. A few of the fish continued to thirst for his blood. If this keeps up, Jake is going to compromise with the hungry fish by throwing them a handful of salmon eggs.

Three runs off Bob McGraw in the first inning won the game for Los Angeles, almost before the fans were adjusted to their form-fitting seats. This was speedy work on the part of Bob, and he showed even greater speed in getting to the clubhouse after passing two in the second. Slim Love then walked two, and called it an honest day's work. Walk two on the Vernon pitching staff, and you're out! That is, up to a certain point. P. Samson Schneider walked eight later in the day, but by that time the game was lost. The Angels looked like clay pigeons to Pete, and he was shooting with a scatter gun. On this occasion the million-dollar Tiger twirling staff looked worth its weight in Russian rubles and Montenegro nickels.

BILL WORRIED.

Mr. Essick was plainly worried by the depreciation in his pitchers. Bill poked his head out occasionally, saw that it was stormy and then pulled in his hat. There was nothing further to be done. Beginning today, he will resort to prayer and fasting. He's as disgusted with all this foolishness as Edison is with bone-headed college graduates and as Einstein is with a button-brained human race.

The theory of relativity was demonstrated by Messrs. Gorman and Niehoff, who competed in showing the best style of playing second base. Neither did a great deal, but what they did was very classy.

UMPS QUIET.

Neither of the umpires asked the other to make a decision for him. This is well. We have enough trouble without the umpires quarreling with each other. Still, it would be interesting to see a couple of umps in a fight because one of them didn't like the other's decision.

Los Angeles launched such a severe attack in the first that McGraw thought somebody had busted a bottle of home brew across his perspiring brow. Killefer, Carroll, Griggs and Crawford all took a crack at the pill, and McGraw himself mixed in some dope in the shape of wild heave to second on McAuley's sacrifice. Mac had a peculiar day at the plate. What with the good walking and two sacrifices he suffered no time at bat.

Bob whiffed Lindimore in the second, and then went wrong with walks to Baldwin and Crandall. With Love pitching, Killefer flied. Slim then began to slop over, passes to McAuley and Carroll crowding in a run. There is a limit to the capacity of our bases.

P. Samson Schneider then went in and faced Sandow Griggs. This irresistible force meeting an immovable body resulted in a fly ball to Chadbourne. Thus the question, which has perplexed scientists, locomotive engineers and dynamiters was answered.

REFILLS BAGS.

Along in the fourth, Schneider began experimenting with the refillable bases. He passed two and Crawford passed them both along to the plate with a double. The remainder of the afternoon passed with three passes in the sixth, two in the seventh and one in the eighth. Thus ended the passing show.

There was just one jam at the plate, a small raspberry jam with a slight gaze. That was in the fourth when Croter called a third strike on Niehoff. Here we have two personalities which just naturally seem to clash. These personalities harmonize no better than a pair of brass knuckles and a soft nose. Bert didn't bed. He simply raised his eyes as though calling on a higher power to witness this outrage. His mistake was in looking straight up. He should have looked toward San Francisco. The score:

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Business Analysis; Los Angeles Still a White Spot; Cotton Situation.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The monthly report of business conditions in Los Angeles issued last evening by the Public Service Department of the Merchants National Bank presents some peculiarly interesting figures in view of the pronounced readjustment which has been going forward during the period.

This review shows that continued record building activities featured the local business situation during the month just passed. Building permit values, totaling $7,433,760, showed a gain of $4,270,718 over May a year ago.

It is possible that this advance will maintain Los Angeles' position of the past four months as third city in the United States in point of building activities, being surpassed only by New York and Chicago. Prices of nine out of eleven local standard food commodities showed substantial declines over the month previous and a year ago. May of last year represented the peak or high prices in many lines and an examination of the accompanying table of local food prices will evidence the result of a year of gradual price declines.

It is evident throughout the country, however, that the public is not satisfied that prices in general have declined to their proper levels and this fact is retarding the upward movement in the readjustment. Many of the country's foremost employers frankly state that wages must come down before production can reach normalcy, but that living costs must first have further declines.

The local labor situation has been fortunately favored by the extensive building campaign. There were numerous layoffs during the month, mostly in mechanical crafts, and many of these men were immediately employed in building lines. It is noticeable, too, that laborers are treking to the farms, which have long needed more favorable labor conditions.

Unprecedented rains in May seriously damaged the local hay and grain crops as well as some bean sections and truck crops. An announced reduction of railroad freight rates is expected to benefit the local situation. This, coupled with recently established refrigerated ship lines to the Atlantic, should result in large summer shipments of fruits and vegetables.

For general local business May is an off month as far as transient trade is concerned, being wedged between the close of the winter tourist season and the beginning of the summer travel trade. Whereas the citrus and cotton crops ordinarily would put over $750,000,000 into circulation at this period, unfavorable conditions surrounding these two crops for the past year have diminished their earnings. All things considered, therefore, the present local situation, although not thoroughly satisfactory, seems to be comparatively favorable.

GROWERS ENCOURAGED.

California and Arizona cotton growers are much encouraged by a study of the present conditions in the long-staple market. Advices from Egypt show that spot Sakellarides Extra (equivalent to Arizona Pima No. 2) is held in Alexandria at 43½ cents and Fully Good Fair (equivalent to Pima No. 4) at 30 1-4 cents. There also is report that practically no good grades are on hand in Alexandria or in the interior. Of Sea Island, from the American southeast coast, there is little in reserve and that in strong hands, demanding more than 40 cents.

Arizona cotton men now are well organized, and the only staple being liberated is on forced sale. Most of the growers are decently financed and are able to wait until the demand catches up with them.

It is appreciated that the present demand is only nominal, but there also is appreciation that high-grade staple is bound to have an active market before long. Another favoring feature is the emergency tariff of 7 cents on long-staple importations, with prospect that the impost will be 20 cents on passage of the new tariff measure.

A large part of the Salt River Valley cotton crop already is in warehouses elsewhere, in New England, New Orleans and in Los Angeles, ready for immediate delivery. The owners are fully aware of the fact that it will not market itself and have a good selling organization ready for any business that may come into sight.

The present season's long-staple crop will not choke the market this fall. Only about a third of last year's acreage has been planted in the Imperial and Salt River valleys, with a large proportion of volunteer. The season is a backward one, with a cold spring enduring even into June, and the plants showing the effect.

GOODYEAR DEBENTURES.

The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, O., is offering to its preferred and common stockholders opportunity to subscribe to the company's ten-year 8 per cent. sinking fund, gold debenture bonds.

President E. G. Wilmer, in a letter to the stockholders, says:

"The plan and agreement of readjustment of debt and capitalization of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, dated Feb. 1, 1921, has been declared operative, and, in connection with the carrying out of the plan, there has been obtained for the stockholders of the company the privilege of subscribing, at 99 per cent and accrued interest, for ten year, 8 per cent sinking fund, gold debenture bonds of the company, with common stock attached.

"The entire issue of $27,500,000 debenture bonds has been purchased subject to this offering by a group of banks and bankers, including the Bank of the Manhattan Company, Blair & Co., Inc., Haligarten & Co., Irving National Bank, and National City Bank, all of New York; A. G. Becker & Co., and Continental and Commercial National Bank, both of Chicago; Girard National Bank, Philadelphia; Mellon National Bank, Pittsburg; Old Colony Trust Company, Boston, and the Union Trust Company, Cleveland.

"The debenture bonds entitle the holders thereof, upon presentation at the office of Central Union Trust Company of New York, to receive, without additional charge, on and after May 1, 1922 (or on and after such earlier date as may be designated by the company,) voting trust certificates for fully paid shares of the common stock of the company, without par value, at the rate of one share for each $100 face amount of debenture bonds.

"At the subscription price of 99 per cent and accrued interest, the yield on the debenture bonds is approximately 8.50 per cent per annum, if held until maturity. This yield represents the return on the debenture bonds alone, apart from the common stock attached to the debenture bonds."

A STEP FORWARD.

W. G. Kollock, president of the California Company, said yesterday that in his opinion, an important forward stride has been made in the financial history of Los Angeles within the past thirty days which points to the Los Angeles of tomorrow as the financier of the Pacific Southwest.

"For several years," continued Mr. Kollock, "the banks of Los Angeles have recognized the necessity of fostering the agricultural and industrial development of not only Southern California, but of some of the worthy Arizona projects as well. But it has only been within the immediate past that concerted and substantial steps have been initiated by the Investment banking houses of Los Angeles to take the lead in financing Arizona's bond issues.

"The first of these issues to be offered to the public is the issue of $1,000,000 Valley Ranch Company first mortgage 8 per cent serial gold bonds, which are now being distributed by a syndicate headed by the California company, including Blyth, Witter & Co., Banks, Huntley & Co., the California Bank, and the Security Trust and Savings Bank.

"This financing will shortly be followed by other Arizona issues of equal importance. Bond issues of a similar character of California corporations are selling to yield investors from 7 per cent to 7½ per cent, whereas 8 per cent may be expected in the present money market from the Arizona issues, and will undoubtedly attract investment funds that are now going into many eastern industrial or foreign government bonds for an 8 per cent return.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 3.—Liquidation and short selling effected further price impairment in the stock market today. Standard shares lost one to five points, while speculative issues fared even worse.

Pressure accumulated through tight money, indications of trade depression and further dividend omissions. Chief among these were Cuba cane sugar, preferred, and Armour Leather, preferred, while International Harvester announced a cut in the common dividend.

The Cuba cane dividend action evidently came as a surprise. The stock sustained an extreme loss of thirteen points on heavy offerings which included a block of 4000 shares.

Other sugar shares were extremely weak, as were many food stocks motor subsidiaries, cheaper oils, chemicals and shippings. Rails were dull and irregular throughout and efforts of bull pools to elevate some secondary specialties met with slight success. Weakness ruled at the close on a turnover of 635,000 shares.

Call loans opened and renewed into next week at 7½ per cent. Rates for time funds were unaltered.

The heaviness of foreign exchange, particularly sterling, was associated with selling from London on rejection by British coal miners of the government's proposals. German and Greek remittances alone showed comparative strength.

The chief feature of the bond market was a rally in Liberty 3½'s. These closed at 87.90, a net gain of slightly more than one point and almost two points above yesterday's low record of 86.

Other Liberty issues showed mixed gains and loss and the general bond list was irregular. Total sales, par value, $14,675,000.

TRADING IN CONTACT WHEAT STARTS TODAY.

FINISH OF MARKET WEAK AND GAIN MADE THURSDAY IS LOST.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Trading in contract wheat in store for September delivery will begin at the opening of the market tomorrow, Saturday, June 4.

Wheat finished weak and lost all of the gain made yesterday. There was wheat for sale most of the session and much of it was for long account. The estimate that Italy will need only 60,000,000 bushels of wheat this season against 110,000,000 imported last year tended to depress the market. The fact that assessors returns show much larger acreage than government estimates also had some influence. Corn was off 1¾ to 1⅞ cents and oats were ⅝ to 1 cent lower. Rye was 3 cents lower and barley ½ cent, and pits were 2½ cents lower. Local cash sales were 1900 bushels of wheat, 115,000 bushels of corn, including 100,000 bushels to exporters, and 315,000 bushels oats, barley 18,000 bushels. Cash wheat premiums were 2 to 3 cents higher, cash corn and oats basis. Corn was better, part of it 2 to 3½ cents higher. Exporters bid 47 cents over July for No. 2 hard winter and 46 cents over July for new-crop shipment. Vessel room for 100,000 bushels of corn was chartered for Montreal. Sales of 100,000 bushels contract rate were reported to go to store.

Wheat started firm, price reaching a new high on the crop, but thereafter prices weakened and substantial losses were recorded within the next ten to fifteen minutes. The buying at the start was on reduction of country offers and through many commission houses which have been credited on the buying side. Later one of the leading local longs put wheat in the market, which proved the last straw, metaphorically speaking, and the bears became the masters under this load. Scattered buying on resting orders halted the decline but the market exhibited no rallying power. It was intimated by people who claimed to know that eastern interests that took the cash wheat in on May delivery would put the market today attempting to dispose of the cash grain. This caused some of the selling, also a reduction of 2 cents in the price of Argentine wheat to foreign buyers because a turn in exchange rates tended to undersell on the parcels of hungry Southern Europe export demand slow with Belgium out of the market. Spain has reduced free sailing of wheat by that country.

Corn was weaker at the start and the only support came in the early selling in the hope of buying against indemnities. The continued pull of rain to market is depressing to the cash side and commission houses generally were credited with selling at start. Later on, on buying for long account. Country offerings to arrive are said to be moderate, but receipts were estimated at 600 cars. Shipping demand for cash corn was slow, it is believed that fair-sized samples could be had for 3 cents over July. Export sales reported a considerable new ideal for the coming week.

Oats followed a weak undertone along with wheat and corn. There was pressure of the sale of the last of contracts and fluctuations were narrow. Cash trade was quiet and featureless. Offering by lumps, which added to the pressure against May, found buyers only scant and prices were easily lowered. Receipts were 300 cars.

Provisions were weak with hogs. Lard declined 25 cents and ribs 37½ cents.

Estimated receipts today: Wheat, 60 cars; corn, 600; oats, 300; hogs, 30,000.

BARLEY FUTURES SHOW DOWNWARD TENDENCY

While nearly all of the near-by shipments of barley sold from on the local grain market yesterday, the sharp drop that has been apparent in late days, particularly Chicago, had a depressing effect, and the undertone was unsettled. The fact that the estimate of the crop of Italy unofficially announced as that of the Steam-ship delivery, which the Italian crop will be ready to move promptly, but the July article dropped 50 cents at the close of the call, and December barley took a drop of 75 cents from the top figure. Cash barley transacted during the day consisted of the shipping of a car of the spot article at $1.24½, a car of Feed at $1.20, a car of Malting at $1.35, and a car of Kansas bran sold at $29.25.

INJURED AUTOIST IS HELD UNDER ARREST.

CONFESSES TO RUNNING INTO AND HURTING FOUR PERSONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OAKLAND, June 3.—Jack Cox, former Army aviator, now a wholesale dealer in hay and grain at Patterson, Stanislaus county, was arrested here this afternoon after being brought into town by persons who took him from the wreckage of his machine on the Altamont Road between here and Stockton. Cox confessed to being the driver who ran into and injured four persons near Tracy. He is seriously, probably fatally, injured, and is under treatment at the Emergency Hospital.

Following the accident on the Altamont Road, Cox said he continued on toward Oakland, but shortly afterward ditched his own car which was completely wrecked. He was traced through the fact that E. S. Dawson, of San Francisco, who picked him up, was driving a car precisely similar to his own, a description of which had been wired the local police.

When using a sausage grinder for grinding hash, you will find it saves quite a bit of material which naturally sticks in the grinder if you run a couple of crackers or a piece of dry bread through at the last. The crumbs will not harm the hash and the grinder will be much easier to wash.

You should have heard a little Tommie Tucker of my acquaintance, who instead of crying for his supper, begged all the time for more milk! At first I could not understand the reason for this terrible thirst of his, but later when I made inquires and found that his family used L. A. Creamery milk, to myself I said "Ah, there's a reason!" Are you satisfied with the milk you buy? If not, don't hesitate to change and order from the L. A. Creamery. Their milk is fresh, rich and put up in the most sanitary of methods. Much of the health of the entire family depends upon the milk they drink, you know.

California's ideal climate permits of our planting seeds any time. Keep this thought, for Winsel & Gibbs are selling seeds, plants and trees at half price! 211 S. Main their address.

This is a breakfast scene in which I was one of the principals recently. All the family were assembled and seated when the coffee was brought in; all were at once aware of its most enticing aroma, but when served with a cup of this golden liquid no longer could any one suppress the question, "Whose coffee did you use?" "Andes, if you please," was the hostess' ready reply. It's somewhat new here, roasted daily, by the way, and I have only to phone 16781 to have it delivered in any amount. A mental note was made of the name and phone number I can assure you.

There is one thing sure and certain, if you will buy at the United Wholesale Paint Company's store, 434 S. Main, enough of their "Coz" Coat Automobile Enamel" made by the Frederick J. O'Brien Company, at the very special low price of $1.50 a gallon, to dress up the rather pitifully dilapidated car, you will all join in words of the song, "Ain't We Got Fun?" for this truly marvelous enamel dries over night, and in the words of the younger generation, "Sure is slick."

Jevne's mayonnaise, due to its super-palatableness and downright deliciousness, is being used in new ways every day. We all are looking for an excuse to use it at every meal, it seems to me. The most recent manner of serving it was told me only a few days ago. This good friend put it on potatoes, hot ones at that, with a little butter and salt and her words of praise were nothing short of extravagant. This will, no doubt, appeal to many and it is so entirely new and different that I make haste to pass it along. There is no difficulty in finding Jevne's mayonnaise as even the smallest of stores keep plenty on hand.

Roses for the sweet girl graduate? Order from Lichtenberg's, whose present address is 324 W. 6th, but after July 1, keep 913 W. 7th in mind. It will be their new address.

The perplexing question as to what to clean your suede shoes with is easily answered. Use Angelus Suede Powder. It comes in all shades including grays, tans, brown and black, and is the most satisfactory powder I have used. Removes grease stains like magic and being a dry powder your shoes are ready to wear as soon as the powder is applied. They don't forget that Angelus Glossy White Dressing for white-glazed kid shoes is another Angelus product, which cannot be praised too highly. Insist upon these for perfect satisfaction. Don't forget all the better department and shoe stores sell them.

The Janelle Caterers—just the thing. These refined women knowing just how and what is desired, will cater to your needs; they will come to your own home by the hour, cook and serve just what you want, bringing their own choice linen and silver, as you wish; or you may invite your friends to their home; will serve from twelve to 100; will furnish pianist and monologist; an ideal place for club meetings; private rooms for bridge, etc. Their angel food cakes, rolls and salads are the very best. Talk it over with them. Phone West 3902.

Use a piece of candle instead of a cork in your glue bottle. It will not stick.

With June in our midst no longer can we ignore Miss Summer's arrival—and Miss Summer is always thirsty, so make preparations for the hot weather beverages by buying Cream O' Malt Syrup, which is sold at The Clee-Koe Coffee Store, 316 W. 5th st. You must try it for your next brew. Oh, but it's good.

"Good morning! Have you had Phospho meal for breakfast?" a funny salutation perhaps due to the smile that wouldn't come off the person to whom the question was directed, and now for the answer, "Of course, what else would bring such exhuberance, such a thrill of pleasure, over just being alive." Those amongst you who are devotees of this splendid breakfast cereal can appreciate the feeling just expressed. To the others I would suggest an immediate rally to Phospho meal. It sure is good.

When giving sticky medicine to children, heat the spoon by dipping it in hot water; then pour in the medicine and it will slip easily from the spoon.

Your Dream House designed after the plans you have been for years making mental pictures of, but never succeeded in putting into practical form, today may be yours, for the F. S. Price Co., whose offices are in the Lissner Bldg., 524 S. Spring, takes greatest pleasure in making your "dreams come true," by making these ideas an actuality. Then, too, they furnish funds necessary to erect a house providing the property upon which it is built is free of an incumbrance. Plans and specifications will be gladly submitted without any obligatory consideration on your part, by the way, just phone 13966.

'Tis a magical powder, that Pronto: "just one can kept close to hand" smooths the furrows from the brow which would otherwise be muckly wrinkled over bothersome, troublesome sinks and bowls, which would stop up, do what you might. Be another "Glad" by being thankful for Pronto, which all good grocers should carry.

Taken each morning, lemon juice in water is excellent in keeping down any tendency in an overabundance of flesh. If one is very stout, it may be taken three or four times a day with no injurious effects.

Oh, the blessed relief we housewives, who know about the Acme Cleaners are experiencing. A phone call, "Pico 1480, please," brings us in touch with experts in cleaning, waxing and polishing the floors in big houses as well as little ones. I only ask you to try them once, a word to the wise is sufficient.

Codfish Balls. Mix two cups of boiled potatoes (pressed through a potato ricer) with one cup of shredded codfish which has been scalded and drained. Add one tablespoon of butter, a little paprika, one-eighth teaspoon of curry powder. Let cool and make into cakes, roll in fine cracker crumbs and beaten egg. Allow to remain in cold place until required. Fry in deep fat.

There is no tragedy in having your car laid up for repairs, nor in fact, in not having any car at all, for as a matter of fact the Yellow Taxi Cab Co. is always ready at a moment's notice to take you any place you want to go, barring none. Some hurried shopping to do? Call a yellow Pico 1. A train to catch? Again a yellow taxi. Now, as this is as we all know it, the month for weddings and their attendant gayeties, just remember that you need a taxi to take you back and forth, one upon which you may depend, so a last bit of wisdom is for better service, call a yellow, Pico 2.

You want a New Home for two of things beside making a spring wardrobe. The New Home I refer to this time is a sewing machine with or without an electric motor. The Eastern Outfitting Company, 630-4 S. Main, are selling them, you know. The demand for this very efficient machine grows greater every day and, by the way, if you want my opinion or suggestion regarding the "ideal" wedding present, I would head the list with a New Home sewing machine. Can you think of any single present which would give more pleasure or be more appreciated?

If you live near 3705 S. Vermont, and are looking for a "notion" shop, step in, for their stock is the newest and latest and they are there for your convenience, remember.

A kid glove worn in the palm, but good on the back, and the palm covered with lamb's wools, makes a good shoe shiner.

An ode to The Food Shop rolls would be my maiden effort were I a poetess, for never have I tasted any better. Home-made, of course, everything in the Food Shop that most irresistible little home of good things to eat at 121 S. Western avenue. Phone today for some Food Shop rolls that you may judge yourself of their utter deliciousness.

Weddings depend so much upon the flowers, which will turn the church or house into a bower of loveliness. The bride's bouquet is next to the wedding gown in importance. Go to Lichtenberg's when making plans for the big occasion. Their present address is 324 W. 6th. After July 1 it will be 913 W. 7th.

Cut a circular hole in the shelf of your stepladder, finish the circle with an iron hoop and you will have a place to set the pail when cleaning and there will be no danger of its falling off.

Is there a single reader of these columns, who does not know the shop of F. Suie One, 510 N. Los Angeles street, where they may buy everything for the home to make it beautiful? The Chinese influence prevails today in decorations, so let me impart the news just received that F. Suie One is to receive very shortly a new shipment of furniture you will go into raptures over. Suppose today after finishing your marketing you steal an hour or two to visit this all-alluring spot, there to revel in the treasures displayed, some of which of a certainty you will make your own.

"Like mother used to make," only better—are the doughnuts made by The Doughnut Shop, 238 S. Western Ave., where particular pride is taken in the mixing and cooking of these nationally-known cakes. Step in and see how really good they are!

"All ready? Then let's go! On the camping trip we have been making ready for these many weeks. The best equipment we found in The Western Hardware and Arms store, 518 S. Main, where prices were lowest and values the best. A complete Grid Auto Tent Outfit, Folding Desert Water Bag, and Kamp Kook Caso Stove is part of our equipment. Don't you know we are going to have a grand and glorious time?

The bride of today is the housewife of tomorrow and it is but right that she should, as possible, all knowledge regarding housekeeping, cooking nourishing foods, should be gained. Very soon would I introduce into her home L. A. Creamery Company's cottage cheese for many's the time it has proven a life-saver to me. An eleventh hour dish all thoroughly enjoy. And its uses are legion. You use it for salads, to serve on confection with pineapple, for sandwich fillings. Make plain out of it or serve it with good old cream, salt and pepper, bread and butter, and then you have something the hoi polloi, bourgeoisie and Bon Ton may all enjoy and relish.

Meat-Stuffed Peppers. Parboil four to six green peppers for five minutes. Prepare a mixture of cooked rice and chopped left-over cooked meat of any kind. Moisten with a little brown sauce made from soup stock (left-over gravy will do as well) and stuff the peppers with this mixture. Bake twenty minutes in a moderate oven, basting often with a half-cup of hot water, to which one tablespoon of butter has been added. Serve hot.

Once more I extol the many virtues of Hughes' Ice Cream though today, I am giving the honor to the orange flavor, which is a particular favorite of mine. If you have eaten this unusually taste-satisfying ice cream which the Hughes Ice Cream Company tell me is becoming more popular all the time—then can you enthuse with me. At night before retiring we frequently send for a quart of Hughes' Orange ice cream. So often you are quite hungry at bedtime and ice cream as pure and rich in nourishment as Hughes' is, satisfies and at the same time nourishes. You never tire of Hughes' either.

Every day is the Elite Catering Company's day for though parties fill June to overflowing "and where there's a party there's the Elite"—still the whole year through, we have tried and proven most efficient and excellent caterers and confections—eaten their ices, cakes and pastries, been their guests at luncheon, afternoon tea and dinner,—know that when we want anything "very special" we turn for aid to The Elite, whose address, I might add, is 641 S. Flower.

Whenever I go into the homes of my friends I want to ask them to buy "Kaoma" for well do I know the havoc wrought to the hands by the use of scouring powders of the past. Kaoma is new, it has only been on the market a short while, but, my word! It is beginning to take a great hold, for you can clean, scour and polish everything with it, even the brass bed, and the kitchen stove, and your hands will be as soft as when you began. Kaoma's address is the nearest grocer. Lose not another second. Order a can this morning, first thing!

If you would like something extra good, try that delicious angel food, devil's food and caramel nut, baked at your order in Mrs. Kuch's private kitchen. Phone Main 705.

The most important item in each day's menu is bread, and if there are any little people in the family I may go further and say good bread is the most desirable article of food we buy and most necessary. Bear Bread satisfies and keeps fresh and moist. It's the bread that "made mother stop baking" for the simple reason that she couldn't compete with it. I wish you all would ask your grocer to include a loaf in today's order.

To prevent moths, paint inside of drawers and chests with two parts cedar oil and one part gasoline. The gasoline services as vehicle or dryer.

When lining of the shoes wears out or tears, smooth the edges down and cover them with a piece of adhesive plaster, pressed down firmly.

Fight Will Reach Climax at Polls Late This Month.

Blue Law Issue is Definitely Developed in Campaign.

"They're Off" in Glendale.

Entries for the race for city offices under the new charter closed last night and the days of dark and mysterious movements upon the part of some of the municipal politicians ary at an end and the field of candidates stands in the open view for the first time.

The fight of the municipal election, which is to be held on the ... last, will center on the selection of the new Board of Trustees, who under the recently adopted charter will be the sole governing power of the city.

In recent months there has developed a movement in Glendale along the footsteps of Pomona to put what has always been considered a most chemically pure community, a stronghold of Puritanism, hoping a recent revival meeting in the city, a desire was born to close the ... theaters now open to the public on Sunday, and stop the fizz ... spouting forth from the nozzles of the soda fountains, these being the only two means now provided in the Gem City for in the ... law-breaking the Sabbath. Exponents of the blue laws realized that there was little chance of carrying their program into effect unless the Board of Trustees, all of whom aspire to re-election should be ... No open fight was waged ... a continued "gumshoe" campaign was carried on, with no real ... that the present board would have strong opposition. Only ... when the petitions of candidates became public property ... the last day for filing, was it known for sure that there would be much of a contest.

Members of the present board, which includes Dwight W. Stephenson, chairman; C. H. Henry, Mrs. ... Burdett, Spencer Robinson and ... Lapham, have all declared themselves ... for another ... and will receive the support of the voters who favor a "let-good ... alone" policy.

Active in opposition and insisting upon following the ... of the Presbyterian minister, Dr. W. E. Edmunds, has assumed active command of the Sunday ... faction. The minister ... himself longed to be a candidate for chairman of the board but has never made an open fight for public office. It is generally conceded that E. M. McGee, whose petition has been filed, is a direct representative of Mr. Edmonds and is the leading candidate of the opposition for chairman of the board.

W. B. Kirk, S. A. Davis, H. W. Yarick and C. H. Muhleman are the other candidates put forward by the followers of the blue-law doctrine.

Besides those mentioned, C. W. Mabry, W. A. Anderson, Charles Grist, Earl Brown and C. E. Kimlin have filed petitions. The standing of these candidates will have to be determined as the campaign continues. Mr. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanatorium, and a leader of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, is a candidate standing in opposition to Sunday closing laws.

Some weeks ago a good government league was organized for the purpose of opposing the movement to ... Pomonize the city and in all ... probability will come into the open in a day or two in favor of re-electing the present board.

When this happens open war will be declared and the city of Glendale will witness more real live local politics than is has ever seen.

Four condidates for City Clerk have filed petitions. They are: Guy Maxwell, A. J. Vanwie, Townsend Clark and J. C. Sharer, who seeks re-election.

CRYER BRANDS SNYDER FAKERY.

Declares Emphatically for Right of All to Choose Healing Methods.

Because of the propaganda industriously circulated by the Snyder forces to the effect that George E. Cryer, candidate for Mayor, has aligned himself with the so-called "medical trust" and is an opponent of "medical freedom," Mr. Cryer issued the following statement last night:

"I believe that every person has an inalienable right to use whatever healing method he may choose, as long as he or she does not violate the law. This is a right guaranteed under the Constitution of the United States. I have repeatedly stated this as my position.

"Now, medical freedom is not an issue in the mayoralty campaign. Anyone seeking to interject it as an issue is trying to becloud the true situation. Every well-informed citizen knows that the Mayor's duty is to enforce laws and not to make them.

"I am a candidate unpledged to any individual or interest. As Mayor I shall uphold the rights of every citizen of Los Angeles."

PASTORS JOIN PURITY FIGHT.

Head of Ministerial Union Challenges Snyder.

Quotes Government Letter on Moral Conditions Here.

Calls on All Preachers to Support Cryer for Mayor.

The following letter was sent yesterday to every Protestant minister in Los Angeles by Dr. Gustav A. Briegleb in his capacity as president of the Ministerial Union:

"Los Angeles, June 2, 1921.

"Dear Brother:

"There reached me yesterday a letter sent out by the Synder headquarters and signed by a minister of this city. In substance, the letter is an indorsement of Mr. Snyder. Such a letter is unfortunate, for it reveals the fact that there is an absence of knowledge regarding vice conditions in Los Angeles on the part of the writer. As president of the Ministerial Union, there has come into my hands today from the United States Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board a report of moral conditions observed by the board in Los Angeles since November 15, last. The report says:

"'We have observed:

"'That the United States Submarine Base at San Pedro stands fifth highest among thirty-six naval stations reporting venereal disease rates.

"'That conditions existing in dance halls, rooming-houses, hotels and even on the streets in certain sections of the city are deplorable.

"'That the civil authorities seem to be pursuing no intelligently planned, systematic and effective program for the prosecution of commercial vice interests.

"'That force seems to have dropped out of enforcement so far as the excellent California redlight abatement law is concerned. In practice the responsibility for securing evidence required to initiate suits under this law is left to the city police department.'

"Such a report coming as it does from a department of the government, and following so quickly the complaints made by Navy Department officials regarding the immoral conditions in our city, should awaken every minister to the need of a change of administration. Conditions must be deplorable when the papers now bring us word that Mr. Clem Wilson, a member of the Police Commission, has resigned his office because of the impossible conditions prevailing not only in the police department, but in the enforcement of law.

"Whatever may be said by Mr. Snyder's friends as to his desire to enforce the law, we know that Mr. Snyder cast his personal vote in favor of granting the dance permit to the Pink Rat, a resort with which the churches of the Westlake district had endless trouble, and against which, as president of the Ministerial Union, I was compelled to use every conceivable means before the nuisance was abated.

"The question in this election is a moral one. As moral leaders we cannot permit these conditions to continue. Therefore, it is our duty to urge our congregations next Sunday to support Mr. George E. Cryer, who as a Christian gentleman represents in himself the best thought and life of our city. Let us as ministers determine that we shall do our utmost to wipe out such conditions as are reported by those who know.

"With kind personal regards, I am

"Cordially yours,
[Signed.] "G. A. BRIEGLEB."

Under date of May 31 the Los Angeles office of the United States interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board sent the letter referred to by Dr. Briegleb to the president of every woman's club in Los Angeles, to naval officials, social and civic organizations and to the municipal authorities in a disinterested and non-political effort to enlist all available aid in bettering the conditions mentioned in the letter. The facts of these conditions were substantiated by official government records. The letter of Dr. Briegleb was sent to each of the 295 members of the Los Angeles Ministerial Union.

A copy of the Federal board's letter was sent yesterday to Rex Laws, the newly-appointed Police Commissioner succeeding E. Clem Wilson, who resigned because of the Mayor's attitude in the vice investigations. In an accompanying personal letter to Mr. Laws the interdepartmental board asks for the data upon which the new official bases his published declarations regarding his ability to prove the contrary of the government agents' statements as to conditions here. Co-operation between the board and the new Police Commissioner is offered and invited.

Mexican Consul Says "Examiner" Far From Truth.

The Times is in receipt of the following message from Mexican Consul Verdugo of San Diego:

"In the newspaper, the Los Angeles Examiner, edited in that city and dated May 29, appeared an article of news from Calexico, with information that the beginning of a new revolution has broke out in Lower California, having the Federal troops being attacked and placed in ambush in a place near Ensenada, by men led by Celso Castro—The inexactness of the above article is proven by the fact that what really occurred is that some bandits have gone around the place mentioned with their ... doings, but sufficient force has been already sent in pursuit of them and no doubt they will be captured in the very near future. This is the exactness of the news given in the Examiner."

SAYS: ANKLE :: WAS :: NOT :: HELD

Calls Husband's Charge Cruel in Suit.

Mrs. Florence Mayo.

WHEN William H. Mayo said that another man had measured his attractive young wife's ankle he subjected her to much embarrassment and humiliation, so much that a denial of the ankle episode is embodied in her suit for divorce, filed yesterday, charging her husband with mental cruelty.

The mental cruelty, Mrs. Florence Mayo, the wife, avers, was caused by the charges her husband made in his cross-complaint to her previous suit for separate maintenance. The cross-complaint accused her of being too attentive to other young men. It stated that on one occasion a youth, named Elliot Barlow, had measured her ankle in the kitchen of her home.

The husband also charged his pretty wife with addressing him with very abusive language, and on one occasion declared he had no "pep."

Mrs. Mayo, in her suit for divorce, filed through Attorney Marcus C. Clark, emphatically denies all her husband's charges. She states she permitted no man but her husband to hold her ankle and did not use abusive language.

She charges that Mr. Mayo's accusations reached her friends, causing her to lose the friendship of many. They have reached her employer, she further states, causing her to lose her position and preventing her from securing employment elsewhere.

Gambling Arrests Drop Heavily Just Before Election.

Apropos of the now-famous denial by Walter Leeds, Snyder campaign manager, of charges no one had ever made to the effect that the ... campaign committee was levying on ... gamblers for Snyder ... funds, the following figures, compiled from the police department records are regarded as significant:

Gambling arrests by the vice division of the Los Angeles Police Department:

T. K. Litch, Son of Millionaire, Sued by Lawyer.

Thomas Kimball Litch, son of a Pittsburg millionaire, who figured some time ago in sensational litigation involving two wives, was sued yesterday by John C. Miles, an attorney, for professional services.

The complaint, presented by Attorney Minor Moore, states that Mr. Miles was retained by Mr. Litch in connection with his suit against Fred Grundy and Andrews & Co. It was agreed that in addition to a cash consideration, Mr. Miles should receive 20 per cent of the money cleared by reason of the litigation. This service was worth $1500, the complaint states. In addition Mr. Miles asks for $600.

AUTO THEFT SUSPECT IN BOLD ESCAPE.

Lieut. Brown Leaps from Officer's Car and Flees in Stolen Taxi.

Leaping from a fast moving automobile and escaping in a car stolen from a taxicab owner, Lieut. Willis Gordon Brown, airplane stunt man and cinema actor of Los Angeles, yesterday added another adventure to his record by eluding his Federal captors at Fresno, where he was held on a charge of violating the Dyer automobile theft law.

Lieut. Brown made his getaway while being taken to the Fresno County Jail late yesterday by Dep. U. S. Marshal Shannon after Brown had made an unsuccessful attempt to get bail. He had been arrested Wednesday at Miami Lodge on the road to Yosemite Valley after a chase of two weeks.

"Well, good-by, Shannon, I'm off," he cried as he jumped from the officer's car and leaped into an alley before the deputy marshal could stop the machine. Special police guards were posted on all the highways leading from Fresno in an effort to recapture him after it was learned he had boarded a taxicab without the owner's consent.

As a former member of the Royal Flying Force of Canada, Lieut. Brown traveled in great style in Los Angeles, declare Detective Sergeants Raymond, Hickok and Ervin of the Auto Club theft bureau. It is asserted that he stole automobiles here and drove them to Nevada, where they were said to have been disposed of by E. F. Chessman, who recently was arrested on a charge of violating the Dyer Act at Tonopah, Nev.

DOCTOR AND NURSE HELD FOR MURDER.

Mistaken Identification Fails to Free Woman in Operations Cases

In spite of the fact that four witnesses identified the wrong woman as Miss Marie Harrison, office nurse of Dr. John Kutch, accused on two charges of murder, both the nurse and physician were held to answer yesterday by Justice Hanby on the two accusations.

They were held for murder, without malice, of Mrs. Margaret Fitzgerald and Bessie I. Blair, through asserted illegal operations. Bail for each case was fixed at $5000, making $10,000 for each defendant. Bail was furnished and the defendants were released pending trial in Superior Court.

M. F. Shannon, defense attorney, held that insufficient evidence was adduced to hold the defendants for the death in the Blair case, and stated that the mistaken identification by four witnesses of one of the defendants showed the attitude of the minds of the witnesses. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Costello prosecuted the cases.

MAY LOWER TAX RATE OF COUNTY.

New Budget Totals Less Than Last Year's Estimate.

Figures Ready for Supervisors Within Few Days.

Increases Offset by Cuts in Departments' Requests.

Indications that the new tax rate to cover the county budget for 1921-22 will be no higher, and possibly may be lower than the tax rate for the past year are given by the figures of this year's budget, which total $9,806,533 as compared with $9,841,230 in 1920-21. The budget is expected to be ready to be presented to the Board of Supervisors within a few days.

To offset several large increases in the new budget, including the County Farm, $142,125; the County Hospital, $178,969, and the new County Jail, $600,000, departmental requests for appropriations were slashed $1,000,000 and no increases in salaries were allowed.

A big saving is made because of fewer elections this year. This is a very large item, the cost of elections approximating $307,025. Other decreases are road department, $365,000; no interest to pay on State highway bonds, $110,000; no land purchases, $150,000; Juvenile Hall, $47,000; care of court wards, $20,000; salvage department, $12,000; recorder's department, $7243; assessor's department, $13,000; county counsel's department, $3900, and forestry department, $4000.

The present tax rate for county purposes is 74 cents on the assessed valuation of $100. The total tax rate outside of incorporated cities is $1.83. The assessed valuation of county property will be larger this year, it is said.

This year's budget is asserted to be the best the county has compiled. Notwithstanding the item of $600,000 appropriated for the new County Jail and the enormous growth of the county, it was possible to keep the budget from increasing last year's total.

Supervisor Woodley, chairman of the finance committee, regards the new budget with a great deal of satisfaction.

VOTERS BACK SCHOOL RULE IN PASADENA.

Three Betterment League Candidates Win Seats on Board of Education.

By a vote of approximately 2 to 1, citizens of Pasadena yesterday expressed confidence in the present management of the public schools and indicated by their choice of members of the Board of Education that they do not favor changes in the personnel or policies.

With approximately one-fourth of the registered electors visiting the polls, Mrs. Clara M. Odell received 3241 votes; A. B. Stevens, 3513, and Fred Bull, 3320, making them the successful candidates. Dr. Floyd S. Luther received 1645 votes; Judge George E. Waldo, 1685, and Robert F. Foss, 1642.

The successful group were candidates of what has been known during the campaign as the School Betterment League, which favored the policies of those in power. The Betterment League was opposed by the Better Government League, which won a signal victory in the recent municipal election when their candidates were chosen as members of the newly created board of trustees.

During the last few days of the campaign rivalry became very keen and several meetings were held by both organizations. The contest really centered about the present superintendent of schools and probably would have resulted in his retirement two years hence had the Better Government League won yesterday. The latter league charged during the campaign that little efficiency was evidenced in the schools and that large sums of money were used for purposes which returned a small amount of good to the community.

The successful candidates are committed to a program of enlargement of facilities and general expansion of the school system, including the issuance of $750,000 in bonds which will be voted on next Tuesday in Pasadena.

Banker Longyear Recovering From Serious Illness.

W. D. Longyear, vice-president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, who has been very seriously ill at the California Hospital, is reported as improving. For the first time in days yesterday his temperature was normal and, though he is still very weak, his physicians hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Longyear underwent a minor operation some time ago. No ill effects were anticipated, but later pneumonia and pleurisy set in and the banker's condition was for a time regarded as critical.

THREE INDICTMENTS.

The Federal grand jury yesterday returned indictments against Joseph Woods, charging violation of the Harrison antinarcotic law, and Abe Max, accusing him of forging a signature to a postoffice certificate of deposit. One secret indictment was returned.

MRS. LOBINGIER CLUB PRESIDENT.

Wins in Unusually Spirited Friday Morning Race.

Los Angeles Trio is Climax for Music Week.

Wonders of Radium Described by Chemistry Expert.

BY MYRA NYE.

Mrs. Andrew Stewart Lobingier won yesterday the spirited contest for the presidency of the Friday Morning Club, competing with Mrs. J. Wells-Smith. From 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. the clubhouse was thronged with women eager to cast their votes for their favorite candidates. One member came from Santa Barbara and three others from San Bernardino for the privilege of voting. Nearly 1000 votes were cast. Late last night the count was incomplete.

Mrs. Lobingier is the only past president who has ever been elected to serve a third term. Four years ago she was elected and served two years as the war president.

Other successful candidates are: First vice-president, Mrs. Arthur Wier; second vice-president, Mrs. Randall Hutchinson; recording secretary, Miss Helen Louise Kimball; treasurer, Mrs. Harry R. Callender; for the directorate, Mrs. Sarah M. Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Koons, Miss Therese Levy, Miss Elizabeth Pepper and Dr. Julia R. Johnson.

For the office of corresponding secretary the result was still in doubt early this morning. The candidates were Mrs. Josephine Reynolds and Mrs. William Waller Slayden.

The climax of Music Week in club circles was reached in the presentation by the club of the Los Angeles Trio; May MacDonald Hope, pianiste; Leon Goldwasser, violinist, and Ilya Bronson, violoncellist.

Henry Schoenefeld, composer of Sonate (quasi Fantasia) which won the Henri Mareau prize at the Paris Conservatoire in 1900, received an ovation when he was called before the club at the close of his number played by Mr. Goldwasser, accompanied by Miss Hope. This was the twentieth time the Sonate has been played in Los Angeles and the composer said it was the happiest time for him in this Music Week as a community offering.

In the first movement of this great composition the patriotic note is sounded and Henri Marteau, the great violinist, said that when he played it in Paris and in New York it said "America" to him. Since that time it has been called the American Sonata. The second movement is lighter, in its theme and holds romance within its sound. There is a churchly solemnity as an undercurrent in the last movement, which sustains the voice and bird tones of the violin.

WELL-BALANCED PROGRAM.

The other numbers of the well-balanced program were by G. Saint-Saens, with four movements and by A. Arensky, three movements, both played by the trio.

Even the stage was crowded to hear these local artists, who were guests of honor at luncheon when Charles Wakefield Cadman spoke in behalf of American composers and Mr. Bronson told of the trip the Philharmonic Orchestra of Los Angeles recently made through Oregon, British Columbia, Montana, Washington, Colorado, Utah and California when they gave thirty-nine concerts.

"If Mme. Curie, the discoverer of radium, had not been taken ill on her trip through the United States," said Prof. W. C. Morgan, of the chemistry department in the State university, southern branch, in his delightfully informal address on "Radium and Its Discoverer," "she would be here now in this Friday Morning clubhouse telling you what I am trying to convey."

He then told how as a mere slip of a girl she was asked by her husband to perform an experiment for which he had not the time, how for two years every day patiently and industriously, making no mistake as she proceeded, she separated from two tons of raw material less than one-tenth of a thimbleful of the substance we now call radium. It was as though a housewife from ten barrels of flour had separated a fourth of a salt teaspoonful of a certain kind of starch from all the other starches in the flour.

WORLD STARTLED.

"When the result of Mme. Curie's labor was known to the world there was not a soul so jazzed or blase that did not get a kick out of the wonderful news if the owner of the soul had the intelligence to know what it meant," said Prof. Morgan. "No one for centuries had opened up vistas half so great, half so dazzling as Mme. Curie, a little Polish woman of France.

CROWD FOOLED IN BANK TRIAL.

Rulings of Court Forestall Anticipated Thrills.

Examination of Loans Barred in Pyle-Conner Case.

Question Former President of Pasadena Institution.

By the rulings of U. S. District Judge Bledsoe yesterday in the case of the government against W. J. Conner and Edward J. Pyle, charging a conspiracy to misapply the funds of the National Bank and Trust Company of Pasadena, the audience that had gathered to hear the cross-examination of J. B. Coulston, the principal witness for the government and former president of the institution, was deprived of the expected thrill.

Byron Hanna, of counsel for Pyle, sought to show that at a meeting of the loan committee of the Pasadena bank, Pyle, had objected to lending so much of the bank's money to Mr. Coulston and his associates in business in Pasadena, but Mr. Coulston denied that this was true. The amount set by the attorney was in excess of the capital stock of the institution, it seems. The court refused to allow the examination to go into the loan of $10,000 to one McNeil involving property at the Box Springs grade, that it was said Pyle as a member of the loan committee did not approve; as well as the statement that loans had been made by Mr. Coulston, as the head of the bank, which the committee did not approve. Furthermore the court would not allow the examiner to go into the matter of a $10,000 loan to S. L. Stearns that had not been approved by the committee.

The sale of the home of Pyle in 1914, and a mortgage taken by the bank a year later, was brought out, but the court would not allow that to go to the jury. Details of the deal by which Conner sold Mr. Coulston's home in Pasadena also were ruled out.

BOND DISCUSSED.

Mr. Coulston was asked if the indemnity bond issued by the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Baltimore, Md., protecting the bank, was not based on the proposition that the loss to the bank must be through the dishonesty of an employee of the institution in order to recover, and that the pending claims against the company could not be adjusted until Pyle had been found guilty. Mr. Coulston denied that that was the reading of the bond. He admitted that he had filed two claims for indemnity with the bonding company and accompanied the same with affidavits. This was in last September and last October.

Mr. Coulston admitted that he had been present during the impaneling of the jury in the case, and had offered the special prosecutor, W. Fleet Palmer, suggestions as to men he thought would be good jurors. He said that he was president of the California Hotel Corporation, with offices at 15 Euclid avenue, Pasadena, and related how he had cared for the notes given by J. M. Jones, in payment of the Conner shortage, the deposit slips and other memoranda connected with the case.

He denied that he had told Pyle if he pleaded guilty the bank would see to it that he got off easily, and that if he did so, the bank would be able to collect from the bonding corporation.

Mr. Coulston related a conversation he had with Pyle on Dec. 10, 1919, when the latter asked that he (Pyle) be elected president of the bank. Mr. Coulston told him, he said, that until certain irregularities of which Pyle had been guilty, had been cleared up that he would not think of it. He said that Pyle had had trouble with the national bank examiner and the clearinghouse on several occasions, and that he should wait for the honor of the presidency. Later on, he might consent to his advancement, but not then, he said.

AGREE ON STATEMENT.

Mr. Coulston said that following a conference between himself, Pyle and two other members of the board of directors of the bank, Pyle had agreed to make a statement to the papers that he alone was to blame for the Conner trouble. The witness declared they told Pyle that if he did not do so they would.

The morning session of the court was taken up by the prosecution presenting the balance of the drafts set out in the indictment against Conner and Pyle, that were returned unpaid to the National Bank and Trust Company of Pasadena. It was brought out in the proceedings that J. M. Jones of Racine, Wis., associated with Conner in the motion-picture business, had given his note to the Pasadena bank for the asserted shortage in the accounts of Conner. This instrument called for the payment of about $76,000, and was given last October. Later on, Mr. Jones was forced into bankruptcy by a Denver creditor. The morning was punctuated with the hot clashes of opposing counsel, every effort being made on the part of the defense to show that the testimony should not be admitted. The case will be resumed Tuesday.

Tong War Feared After Murder of Los Angeles Man.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA BARBARA, June 3.—Another tong war is feared here as a result of the mysterious slaying at Guadalupe of Tom Mock of Los Angeles.

A delegation from the Hop Sing tong called upon Sheriff Ross today with a request that a special investigation be made into the circumstances surrounding Mr. Mock's death.

Mr. Mock, who had been sent from Los Angeles to Guadalupe to act as an interpreter, was found shot to death on the floor near his bunk in a sleeping room adjoining the Hop Sing clubrooms. The Hop Sings assert Mr. Mock was the victim of a rival tong.

Special guards tonight are patrolling the Chinese quarter.

ON ELECTION DAY.

All departments of the main building of the Public Library will be open for reading and reference on election day, Tuesday, June 7, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., it was announced yesterday.

LONE WOMAN ROUTS, NABS ASSAILANT.

Youth Bearing Marks of Hatpin and Teeth Jailed on Attack Charge.

A number of teeth marks and five wounds inflicted with a hatpin landed Clifford Fenton, 17 years of age, in the City Jail yesterday morning on a charge of having attacked Mrs. C. A. Spigner of 218 South Union avenue, while she was walking near her home late Thursday night. The young man was seen and captured by Mrs. Spigner when he returned to search. It is declared, for his hat.

Mrs. Spigner was attacked by a well-dressed young man late Thursday night when almost in front of her home. The man sprang from behind a large palm tree and attempted to tear away her clothing. Screaming for help, the plucky woman jerked a hatpin from her hat and attacked her assailant. After stabbing the man five times Mrs. Spigner seized his finger between her teeth and almost bit off the end. He then fled.

Yesterday morning while on the way to her place of employment Mrs. Spigner saw Fenton. Shouting for assistance she seized him by the coat and assisted by passing pedestrians held him until the police arrived.

At Central Police Station, the prisoner was found to be suffering from the wounds inflicted by Mrs. Spigner and then confessed. He stated that he did not attempt to assault her, but had seized her and torn her clothing.

END SESSIONS WITH MEMORIAL SERVICES.

MISSION WORKERS ALSO HOLD YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY AT ANNUAL MEET.

Memorial services for two members who had died during the year and a mass meeting for young people last evening, concluded the thirteenth annual session of the Southern California School of Missions, which has been meeting this week in the parish house of the First Congregational Church at Ninth and Hope streets. The services were for Mrs. Leonard G. Thompson, former president of the organization, and Mrs. Alice E. Jackson, a member of the board of directors.

Yesterday's session was opened with a reading and musicale by Mrs. Minor Moore. This was followed by the daily Bible hour presided over by Dr. James A. Francis, pastor of the First Congregational Church. The subject of "Winning Our Young People" formed an interesting topic for the church workers, who are confronted with the problem of getting the young men and women into the church. This address was delivered by Miss Sarah Bundy.

Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery concluded her discussion on "The Kingdom and the Nations." It was following this that the service for Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Jackson was held. At noon a fellowship luncheon was served in the church in honor of the returned missionaries. A number of these gave short talks before the delegates.

Mrs. Hallie L. Hill's series of talks, "From Survey to Service" was concluded at the afternoon session and Mrs. Milton Fish's dramatization of the new Hallelujah Chorus was given. The final talk of the afternoon was given by Mrs. A. Rosenberger, on the subject of "Making Life Count." A consecration solo by Mrs. Alma K. Moss closed the session.

Last evening a young people's rally was held in the First Christian Church. At a supper which was held at 6:20, stunts and songs were given by many of the local young people's organizations. This was followed by a mass meeting in the church, at which Mrs. Montgomery delivered an address "The Second Line of Defense."

Dogs and Bears Look Alike to Clerk at Hotel.

There's no difference between a dog and a bear. That is, James Harvey McCabe says so. And being a room clerk at the Alexandria and everything, "Mac" knows.

Yesterday morning bright and early, Charles Murphey, who comes from down Brea way, sauntered into the Alexandria with a large, shaggy monster. "Mac" was at his accustomed post. Mr. Murphey walked up to the desk with the animal in tow and started to register.

"I'm sorry," said "Mac," "but we don't allow any dogs in here."

"This isn't a dog. This is a bear," replied the out-of-town man.

"They all look alike to me," responded "Mac." "He has four legs and some fur on him and I've seen 'em that big."

Thus they argued for some time but "Mac" was adamant. He'd seen them that big and so it must be a dog. And besides, who'd lead a bear around that way?

So Mr. Murphey went on his way with his bear. It is said that the two went to sleep under the tent where Dick Ferris is to have his harem at the Speedway today. For Mr. Murphey and his bear are to be there.

ONE THING NEEDFUL.

Eamonn De Valera is cabling to America for more assistance. Assistance with him means real money. The fires of Irish revolution are kept glowing through the burning of American money.

GETTING TOGETHER.

Gen. Obregon indicates a willingness to meet the terms of the American note to the Mexican government and the north half of the western hemisphere is more peaceful and assuring than it has been for years. Looks as if Uncle Sam and Mexico might be able to get along. Recognition will be gladly exchanged for responsibility.

THRIFT AND OIL.

John D. Rockefeller has been back in the old home distributing shining buffalo nickels among the children of the villagers. John can have as much fun with a nickel as some of us can have with a two-cent stamp. At the same time he has shown us how much farther a dollar can be made to go than in the days of his youth. By investing the dollar in some of the celebrated Rockefeller gasoline it can be made to go seventy-eight miles and take us right along with it.

VOTES AND PUBLICITY.

An eastern town proposes to publish annually a list of its citizens who fail to vote in their municipal elections. This publicity stuff may not be a bad idea but the promoters are going at it backward. Why not call it a roll of honor and print the names of those who do vote? A great many people are so eager to see their names in type that they would even go to the trouble of voting to accomplish it. There would be no economy in merely publishing the list of delinquents. If it were announced that every citizen who casts his ballot would be enrolled in the Blue Book it might stimulate the elections a bit. A blue book is better than a blacklist.

BRYAN AND FLORIDA.

Col. Bryan says that between his voting in the State of Nebraska and living in the State of Florida he has been in a state of suspended animation. That is the state where the Democrats belong but Col. Bryan has hardly given us a chance to suspect it concerning himself. Now, however, he is going to consolidate himself. Instead of making a home in Hollywood, as threatened, Mr. Bryan will declare his legal residence in Florida, where he already has something of a palace. He may yet close his career as a Democratic Senator from the South. As a prohibitionist also he would be the recognized champion of Florida water. Anyhow, he will be no longer in a state of suspended animation. If you ask what state he hails from, our answer it shall be: He hails from Me-o-me-o-mi, in the State of Flor-i-da.

THE DUKE'S PRIDE.

The Duke of Hamilton is quoted as declaring that he is more proud of the prowess of his son and heir, Lord Clydesdale, as an amateur boxer than of any of his possessions. The young peer, not yet 18, is by way of becoming one of the finest amateur boxers of the day and has a particularly fine physique—not in the least like our traditional cartoons of the effete aristocrat.

And another athletic boxing expert is young Lord Knebworth, son of the Earl of Lytton. So in a crisis neither of these young scions of the peerage will have to depend upon an American marriage to salvage his fortune—they will come over and fight Jack Dempsey instead—and then they will know what popularity really means.

But things are coming to a pretty pass if these young aristocrats compete in the field against the pugilists. Is there to be no exclusive field left in which the man of modest origin may shine?

FOREIGN EGGS.

They have a new law in the State of Washington requiring all eggs from foreign shores to be marked with their origin. Even a restaurant serving eggs from China must make it plain to the consumer that his refreshment comes from Shanghai. The food purveyors are making violent objection to the law. It appears that many of the cheap restaurants have been using eggs brought here by ship from China. Sometimes these eggs are as good as the home brew, but a man who is a stickler for a fresh egg would not be appeased by one brought 7000 miles across the water and furnished by a pauper hen of Shantung. With the Chinese, eggs improve with age and one 100 years old or more is accounted a great delicacy. But that doesn't help advertise their eggs in the American markets. Nevertheless, many Chinese eggs are sold here. Where they can be bought in China for two or three cents a dozen and laid down in San Francisco so that they can be sold at a profit for two-bits, a lot of people are going to use them. But few will buy them willingly or by preference. No man will go into a restaurant and ask for eggs from China. Therefore if they are plainly branded with their place of origin there will be small demand for them. For that purpose the Washington law was made. It is hoped to completely kill the traffic in Chinese eggs. But there are dealers and restaurant proprietors who object and these are now in combination to test the law. The high court is asked to decide the law unconstitutional on the theory that it trespasses upon the prerogatives of the national government.

CUTTING FREIGHT RATES.

President Harding has made a personal appeal to the Interstate Commerce Commission to "save the California fruit and vegetable industry from destruction" by securing a sufficient reduction in the freight rates east to enable these products to be shipped at a profit. His personal visit to the offices of the commission to discuss the situation with the members was a violation of precedent; but the President considers red tape of less moment than the industries of a section of the country of rapidly growing importance.

Unless a revision downward of the present freight rates can be secured the eastern markets will be practically closed to certain California fruits and vegetables. But how are schedules to be lowered when the railroads are operating under existing rates at a loss? There is the rub. The government has gotten the country into a mess, and the President frankly recognizes that it is up to the government to get it out.

While the Interstate Commerce Commission can order the railroads to reduce the rates east on perishable shipments from California, it cannot enforce such a decree until it is in position to demonstrate to the courts that the reduction is not confiscatory. It is self-evident that before the rates can be reduced action must be taken to cut down the operating expenses of the railroads. As 80 per cent of the operating expenses goes in wages to employees, the problem of lowering freight rates becomes one of wage reductions.

When the Adamson bill was under discussion in Congress The Times protested that the public should be a party to the agreement, as it is the public that pays the freight, and that the interests of the public were not being considered. The protest was unheeded and the people are now paying for the folly of the politicians. During the war and the period immediately following it, the spirit of Democratic extravagance was inculcated into the railroad administration. No thought was given to the relation of transportation costs to the industries of the country. Before the railroads were turned back to their owners in 1920 the government granted new wage increases to the employees in an amount that increased operating expenses $800,000,000 in twelve months. That was eighteen months after the signing of the armistice, at a time when the troops had been demobilized and a shortage of skilled labor no longer existed.

Recently the government approved a wage reduction which should lessen the cost of transportation about $400,000,000 annually. It was a half-way measure that may serve as a palliative but not as a remedy. Meanwhile, the fruit and vegetable growers of California are left out on a limb. They are shipping this year's crop because the money to produce it has already been expended. But they must know something definite about both freight rates and tariff rates in order to make their plans for the next season. Higher tariffs and lower freights will enable their industries to live.

Many of the readers of The Times are unaware of the desperate straits of the fruit and vegetable growers. The following extract from an appeal to the President, signed by every member of the California delegation in the national House of Representatives, is illuminating:

> Orchards and produce farms are no longer assets to the owners; the last two increases in freight rates have imposed a burden on the California growers equivalent to a mortgage of more than the former value of the orchard and farm lands. . . .
> Immediate and substantial reduction of the present freight rates on these perishable and heavy tonnage commodities is imperative. By this means alone can the fruit and vegetable-growing industry of the State of California, one of the most important of the State's industries, be saved from complete destruction in the immediate future.

In appealing for wage reductions the railroads must come before the Interstate Commerce Commission with clean hands. There must be no distinguishing between the men in the higher offices and those in the shops and on the trains. If managers and other high officials are receiving $25,000 and $50,000 salaries, the unnecessary thousands must be lopped off. It is the public that pays and the public should insist that the wage investigation shall extend to every department of the railroads. The public makes no distinction between the railroad employee who sits in a swivel chair wearing a crash collar and a Palm Beach suit and the one who wears overalls and carries an oil can. Reductions, which are inevitable, should be evenly distributed; and the investigation should determine whether any of the railroads are overcapitalized. But, if the freight rates are to be reduced in time to save the California fruit and vegetable industry, the investigations must be concluded quickly. There is no time for unwinding red tape; it must be slashed with a knife.

PAYING THE PRICE.

The good old U.S.A. is an almost unattainable paradise for some yearning peoples and when we read the awful price some Chinamen are prepared to pay to gain an entrance to the land of freedom, we must realize our happy fortune.

Five Chinamen, denied legal entry into this country, recently took fearful chances. They came across the sea, smuggled under the most crowded and wretched conditions, landed in Mexico just below the border more dead than alive, and then proceeded to undertake a dreadful march across the desert, avoiding the highways. Two of their number were found near death, while three just managed to get to help—help which must inevitably mean that all their privations will have been in vain, since they will be returned to China under our immigration laws.

The story of their sufferings is pitiful, and many others are said to have died in the desert. And it isn't a new story; men barred under our laws have been taking these ghastly chances for many years now, risking certain suffering and almost certain death for the chance to start life anew in the land of their dreams. And men, American men, have been convicted time and again for engaging in this nefarious contraband trade, profiting cruelly at the expense of simple-minded aliens, who rarely realize the hideous price they may be called upon to pay. There can be no punishment too severe for these contraband traders who profit at so bitter a price to their victims.

OUR SUMMER ATTRACTIONS.

It is true that the winter climate of Southern California is superlatively attractive. Its fame has spread afar. The fact that the winter months here are balmy and pleasant is widely known; but to praise the Southland's winter climate and stop there is telling only part of the truth. Glorious though the winter months are, there is even more to be said in favor of the summer season.

Those who visit Southern California, or expect to, and those who are considering the possibility of making their homes here, are interested in knowing about the conditions all the year. The organization of Los Angeles men recently formed to interest people of other States in the advantages of coming here in the summer is performing a valuable service.

It is believed that a campaign of information will bring an increasing number of visitors from near-by States and some from the Middle West this summer and that the widespread dissemination of the year-around appeal will bring more people every year from all portions of the country. Summer visitors, having had first-hand knowledge of the superior advantages of the Southland climate, are also likely to decide to come here to live permanently.

Los Angeles is as free from sweltering heat in summer as it is from chilling blasts in winter. Los Angeles workingmen, in all lines, work more comfortably and more efficiently because the conditions are advantageous every month in the year. Favorable working conditions constitute one of the factors that are making Los Angeles one of the nation's great industrial centers.

The summer climate along the Southern California coast has utilitarian value as well as being a boon to vacationists and to residents in their hours of recreation. This is known and recognized by heads of industrial plants and employers generally.

Winter tourists are undoubtedly a business asset to Southern California, although, with growth of population and activity, in decreasing proportion. The business brought by winter tourists is more apt to be emphasized than that brought by summer visitors, yet it is probably true that the summer visitors are more contributory in a business way. People who come here from the East in the winter months spend a good deal of money in the course of their vacations but they do not buy their supplies here as a rule. Summer visitors, on the other hand, patronize Los Angeles mercantile establishments heavily. People from Nevada, Arizona and California points look upon Los Angeles as their logical supply center and their trade amounts to more than that of winter tourists from the East.

The efforts now being made to attract summer visitors are wisely directed. There are more claims in favor of the summer climate here than in favor of the winter climate and, so far as Los Angeles is concerned, the advantages in augmenting the number of summer visitors are larger in a business way.

Summer or winter, Southern California offers conditions that are attractive to men and women of all callings. The cool breezes of summer and the balmy air of winter add to the zest of life and make the days healthful and joyful. If the campaign about to be undertaken brings a much greater number of people to Southern California in summer, it will permanently add to the population and wealth of the community.

BRING ON THE MUSIC.

With a new song and dance number out of the hopper every forty-seven seconds some of the music dealers are still complaining that there are not enough song hits to go 'round. The jassiacs of this week will not wiggle or wobble to last week's music. A number published in New York is stale by the time it reaches Los Angeles—and vice versa. From Broadway to Broadway is the life of a song but a million wild men and women are stepping to it as it flits. It used to be that the phonograph folk would not make a record of a musical composition unless it had real merit and indicated a permanency of value. Now they are rushing out numbers that are hot off the bat in the hope or expectation that the grand army of jazz fiends will warm their feet in immediate action. They sell them like popcorn at a county fair and in three months are ashamed that they ever gave them life. Fortunately by that time they are old and forgotten. But as the situation stands the music dealers find it hard to keep pace with the demand for something new. There are at least a dozen fresh ones every day. Two or three of these achieve some fame—for a moment, but most of them are just endured. But all may have a hearing and a chance. The words of some of the really "popular" songs would make a Longfellow or Tennyson sob in shame. But if they are set to music that feverish folk can trot to the number will go with a rush. The tireless army of producers think they are playing a double-header when they turn out songs that can be danced to and one-steps that can be sung. But it is safe to say that nothing that has been put forth in the last three years will be recalled five years hence with anything but contempt.

Yet the dealers and publishers are pleading for more and more. Even if it cannot last for more than a night they want it for that night — so that the merrymakers may shake their hoofs and clamor for something fresh.

Alleged composers are working overtime and denting their heads in the effort to produce something—anything. Almost any effort is a meal ticket and there is always the chance of turning out something that can be put over. If it lasts a week it is worth a few thousands and if it can endure a month it is good for a fortune. Most of the "hits" are manufactured through a plugging game and are ephemeral, but if one has sufficient merit to stand on its own legs and make itself heard it is good for a lot of money.

"FOUR SOCIAL POISONS."

Sir James Cantile, a surgeon of distinction in England, has been amusing himself and disturbing his audiences with a series of public lectures.

His latest talk at the Tobacco Trades' exhibition in London only partly pleased its promoters. Tobacco, he said, was perhaps the least harmful of the four social poisons—alcohol, tea, coffee and tobacco. He told people if they must smoke, to systematize it—especially women—and "Never vary your quantity of tobacco, and never go to bed for an hour after your last smoke. It's the bedtime cigarette that is deadly."

His greater condemnation of alcohol, tea and coffee has left the Britisher indignant. Alcohol may be a trifle poisonous, especially the stuff they are profiteering on nowadays. Coffee, well, possibly just a soupcon, since few Britishers know how to make the stuff. But tea—the great national beverage—ye gods, what have they left?

Then again the Britisher has taken much unction to his soul because the Americans have rotten teeth—from eating too much ice cream, drinking too much ice water, freezing their digestive processes. But now comes Sir James to assure them that British teeth are rotten—through taking their food too hot. Dyspepsia, he says, is a disgrace to any family, but the only difference between the Americans and the English is that the former admit their dyspepsia and the British deny it.

And again the Britishers' national claims as fresh air disciples. "Pshaw! There has never been any fresh air in this hall for twenty years," snorted Sir James, who proceeded to assure them that they did not know the first thing about proper ventilation.

But perhaps his worst affront to British susceptibilities was on the subject of female clothes. He said: "The fewer clothes you wear, the higher your temperature. Those young women you claim to be insufficiently clad are not cold, they are hot. Men wear too much clothing. Babies are wrapped up too much."

On the whole Sir James Cantile is not as popular as he was.

There would be more canes carried in this country if the average man was not ashamed to meet a friend when he had one in his hand. Of course in going into a house it can be kept in the umbrella rack in the hall.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

HELPFUL EXERCISE.

I used to sit in pomp and state
And took no exercise, and I achieved such grievous weight I pained the doctor's eyes. 'Twas very little grub
I ate, my appetite unsound; but every bite increased my weight three-quarters of a pound. And then I heard the doctor say, "You surely lard the earth; you'll have to walk twelve miles a day, and thus cut down your girth." So I put on my nine-league boots, and walked till I was lame, although I never cared three hoots for walking as a game.
But one must heed whatever rules the doctors may invent, whatever sort of 'pathic schools those docs may represent. And so I walked along the shore about a hundred miles, and then I walked a hundred more, in all the ragtime styles. The first result of all this toil was appetite renewed: the women had to fry and boil great quantities of food. My appetite was strange and weird, it clamored still for more; the loaves and fishes disappeared, and all the larder's store. My weight increased by leaps and bounds, by bounds and leaps it grew, and where I used to gain two pounds I now gain twenty-
two. The fat man falls in all he does, in all the schemes he tries, and slecks always round him buzz, and talk of exercise. WALT MASON.

SEEING LOS ANGELES.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

The ancient and battered structure on your left is known as the City Hall. It is also claimed as the castle of Pinky Snyder, Grand Squeak of the Mysterious Order of Mice. In Paris it would be called the Hotel de Ville, but Paris wouldn't stand for anything so villainous.

The building was supposed to be begun by Cheops Suey, the inventor of the great pyramid, who wanted to show the world that he could do something different. However, he did not live to finish his work. Could he see it today he would be thankful he died when he did.

The style of architecture is the Sardonic and is a combination of Ionic, Doric and Citric. It is said to be modeled after the kennels in which the dogs of war were kept. It resembles a doghouse to this day.

Columbus never thought much of the Los Angeles City Hall. He went back to Spain and died of a broken heart. Nobody blames him. It was from the tower of the City Hall that Balboa first beheld the Pacific Electric Railroad. He reverently crossed himself. Now the railway does the exposing. When Ponce de Leon discovered the Bimini Baths he stopped at the City Hall for refreshment, but was not particularly refreshed. Now they say you can find a bootlegger in the basement at almost any hour, but the consumer runs the risk of going blind. When Portola came to Los Angeles he was much impressed by the City Hall. That was because he had never seen anything like it before. He was called Gasphard because of the amazement he manifested on that occasion.

Commodore Stockton and Gen. Fremont raised the American flag over the City Hall at the time of the Mexican War and the same flag has been flying over since. The building has been the scene of considerable carnage. Many battles have been fought and bottles opened for its possession. This was not because of its beauty, but for its strategic position. A great deal of red ink has been shed in its assault and defense. This is because the party in possession has the right to be called Mayor—also other names not so polite.

To be Mayor of Los Angeles is said to be an honor, but to have to keep house in the City Hall is nothing to blow about. Nevertheless, we have those with us who like it. That commanding figure you see on the bridge and before the portcullis is none other than that of Mayor Snyder, who now claims the house as his castle. He fought for it back in the days of the Civil War and has been at it ever since. That is why he calls it Castle Snyder. No, that is not a sword he has in his hand. It is a megaphone—the most deadly weapon known to modern science. With the aid of this he is able to defy all comers. He is about to call attention to the fact that he is again leading his forces to the fray. The Lord have mercy upon those who would assail the Mayor in his lair. For the eighth time—or is it the sixteenth?—he is battling for the possession of his castle. With the aid of his trusty megaphone he is telling the hosts of his prowess. With his bare hands he put Los Angeles on the map and even now he is ready to face the deadly camera in her behalf. More than that. He is doing it. There's a photographer before the moat at this moment, armed with the tools of his frightful trade. Does the Mayor shudder? He does not. He marches bravely up and gives him quip for quip. He would give him a quid pro quo if he knew what it was. But for want of it he hands him a nickel cigar with his gallant right. The Mayor is the most fearless creature that ever had his picture taken with a movie queen. Anyone trying to take the City Hall away from him will know what it is to despoil a lioness of her cub or Old Dog Tray of his bone. It simply isn't being done. As the only person in town with any love for the City Hall, let him have it. He is getting so he looks like it—especially around the ears.

The City Hall in one way or another has cost the town about ninety-seven million dollars and is worth about six-bits.

Yes, this is Broadway.

SERMONETTES.

BY N. W. PHILBROOK.

In the olden days if the sermon cut too close they killed the preacher.

What a man carries into the next life must be a part of himself, for no baggage can be carried along.

In a well-balanced man the soul is master of the mind and body and is the real man. Character is the quality of the soul.

If a man wishes to adjust his religion to his habits, his desires, his business he has that privilege, but he must take the consequences of his act.

One of the mysteries of life is in the fact that multitudes of men persist in doing those things which reason, judgment and common sense declare are injurious to themselves and that are bound to wreck the life in the end.

The man who steals under stress of great temptation is not so guilty as the man who, after lying to the assessor, steals from the State by withholding just taxes that he may pile up more ill-gotten wealth.

However great the relative value of the things of this world about which we concern ourselves so much, their real value is shown in these words of God spoken by the prophet, "Behold I create a new heaven and a new earth, and the former shall not be remembered or brought into mind."

German Carp Not Teutonic.

The so-called German carp swarming our rivers are not of Teutonic origin. That is one case in which blame is misplaced. They are Chinese fish and only Chinese eat them if other people know what they are to get. The carp is a humorous animal and a gathering of them will play like boys on a vacant lot. Now is the time for nature study while grasslands are overflowed.—[Portland Oregonian.

SEWER ISSUE'S DEFEAT URGED.

Farm Bureau Body is in Favor of Fertilizer Plan.

Use of Water for Irrigation Also Carries Appeal.

Exhaustive Investigation of Problem is Demanded.

Urging the defeat of the $12,250,000 issue of outfall sewer bonds at next Tuesday's election, the executive committee of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau yesterday made public a supplementary report of the project committee of the bureau, which recommended that a complete investigation of the sewage disposal problem of the city be conducted.

"Such an investigation," the committee report states, "should be conducted entirely independently of the City Engineer's office, and a report should be rendered on the basis of the facts collected by the experts themselves. We would further recommend at this time that steps be taken to secure the appointment of a thoroughly competent irrigation and drainage expert on the City Engineer's staff to take care of the irrigation, drainage and sewage problems from the agricultural standpoint, and this expert should be familiar with the principle of plant growth, and he should not be an engineer."

The report of the project committee was signed by W. R. Schoonover of Alhambra, its chairman, and Dr. George P. Clements, Chamber of Commerce expert, and was unanimously adopted by the executive committee of the bureau, of which Robert Neely of Covina is chairman.

LESS EXPENSIVE.

The report states that in the opinion of the members of the investigating committee the plan of taking care of the sewage of Los Angeles by treatment in a modern plant and to use the effluent entirely for irrigation is quite feasible, and a much better and less expensive method than an outfall sewer. Lieut.-Col. Edward Bartow, one of the foremost sewage experts in the United States, is quoted in the report as stating: "It seems to be a great mistake to run the sewage from Los Angeles into the ocean when there is a possibility of putting in a treatment plant and using the water from the plant for irrigation and the sludge obtained for fertilizer." He further states that Southern California is the best place in the United States for operating an activated sludge plant.

Tentative plans for the construction of three treatment plants at which it was proposed to handle Los Angeles sewage have been worked out, the report states, and are in the possession of the City Engineer, together with detailed suggestions for a distributing system which would place the sewage effluent on the dry land between Los Angeles and the sea. Distribution costs at the State Land Colony at Delhi range from $42.80 an acre to $60 an acre, and the report states that these charges show that to install a distributing system would not entail a prohibitive expenditure.

HUGE VALUE.

The committee estimates that at present prices, with running water worth $1000 an inch in Southern California, the total sewage effluent of the city has a value for irrigation purposes equal to a capital investment of $7,000,000, and for this reason, the report says, "it can be readily seen that it pays highly to conserve and distribute this water, for while land dry-farmed has a potential producing power of $30 per acre per annum while the same land under irrigation has a potential producing power of $300 an acre."

"Aqueduct water," the report says, "is not unlimited in supply and can be better used elsewhere than in the territory between Los Angeles and the ocean."

They will sail from New York in July for Switzerland.

The visitors will be quartered at the Alexandria. They will be entertained today by the Japanese Association of Los Angeles; tomorrow by Consul Oyama; Monday at a dinner in the Riverside Inn, to be given by Frank Miller. On Tuesday, the Japan Society will give a luncheon at the City Club, and in the afternoon the visitors will visit the Ince studios. They will leave at 8 p.m. Tuesday for San Francisco and thence will go to Seattle.

UMPIRE SEEKS SAFETY IN SKY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VENICE, June 3.—As the result of their inability to decide on an umpire for Sunday's game, the Venice High Fliers have asked H. B. Delay to perform this office for them from his airplane. The manager of the team, Ed Russell, says that the air is the safest place for an "ump" anyway. The opposing team will be the Exposition Tigers of Los Angeles. Mr. Delay has accepted the doubtful honor and will arrange a series of signals with which to make known his decisions.

BODY TO BE SENT TO ILLINOIS FOR BURIAL.

NEW FIGHT OVER "RATTLER TEST."

Council Gets Excited About Rock for Paving Job.

One Contractor Makes Remark Which Brings Objection.

Necessity for Subpoenas Is Hinted During Meeting.

The proposed ordinance creating new specifications for street improvements, which the City Council has been reading over in leisure afternoons this week, nearly went on the rocks yesterday when a clash over Section No. 23 occurred. This modest paragraph deals with a modification of the "rattler test" for rock.

Councilmen Conaway, Farmer, Mallard and Sanborn voted for the section, and the other five voted it down, so it is temporarily set aside. Councilman Wheeler opposed it on the ground that it would make the specifications for street paving base more liberal and result in poorer jobs which would mean heavier cost for upkeep.

FOUR FEAR TO TALK.

According to Councilman Farmer, four contractors declined to appear before the Council and discuss the section because they feared that rock companies with which they had to deal would have vengeance upon them if they talked.

It was charged that certain contractors couldn't get rock from the Union Rock Company unless they bought their sand from the same firm. H. C. Stone, treasurer of the firm, denied this, but explained that it was the policy of the company to decline to sell rock to contractors who did not have good credit.

A clash was narrowly averted when H. W. Holly of the Los Angeles Gravel Company remarked that he didn't know whether or not Councilman Wheeler was on the pay roll of the Union Rock Company.

WITHDRAWS REMARK.

President Workman remarked that Mr. Holly "had better cut that out," and after Councilman Wheeler objected to the insinuation, Mr. Holly withdrew it.

After endeavoring to get at some facts which were not volunteered, Councilman Farmer declared:

"Well, I guess we'll have to serve a few subpoenas."

Councilman Wheeler expressed the opinion that the section would reduce the cost of paving .4 of a cent per foot and increase the cost of upkeep. Councilman Mallard admitted that the cost of paving upkeep here is $150,000 a year, but drew from City Engineer Griffin the assertion that only 2 per cent of paving upkeep cost is devoted to base repairs.

BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY OF SOCIETY.

Two Hundred Genealogical Volumes Given to Sons of Revolution Repository.

Again Los Angeles and Southern California are to be considered most fortunate, says a statement issued yesterday by the Society, Sons of the Revolution, of California. There have been added to the historical, genealogical and biographical reference library of the society, the repository of the Southwest, located at 424 South Broadway, more than 200 valuable family histories and genealogies.

As the East has always considered that it had a monopoly on such works, this part of the country can consider itself more than usually fortunate to have these hundreds and hundreds of genealogies accessible to the public here. More family histories and other works are constantly being added by gift from many local persons, as well as from all parts of the United States.

The library is open morning to the public from 10 to 13 o'clock only, Sundays excepted.

The genealogies and histories now on file are those of the following families:

Anyone having genealogies or local histories, or other books they wish to place in this rapidly growing reference library, will be doing a most excellent thing for the cause of Americanization, and those seeking information by which they may become members of the Society, Sons of the Revolution, says the statement.

Aged Veteran of World War Gets Federal Office.

U. S. Dist. Judge Trippet yesterday named George Leovy as United States Commissioner, at San Diego, to succeed W. R. Andrews, deceased. The new commissioner served as a naval officer with credit during the World War, although he is an aged lawyer, and in addition had two sons in the Navy and a third who went to France and fought in the infantry. Mr. Leovy was on duty all through the war at San Diego, and wore a uniform for a year after the war, on duty in San Francisco.

TO INSTALL LODGE.

Elks to Conduct Ceremonies Tonight at Huntington Park.

Today is practically a holiday at Huntington Park. The occasion is the formation of a new Elks' lodge and the attendance of some 4000 Elks from Los Angeles, Glendale, Pasadena, Santa Monica, and Redondo Beach, is expected.

Activities will start at 5 p.m., with a barbecue, to be followed at 7 p.m. by a parade, street dancing and free motion-picture shows. Seven brass bands will assist.

The city streets have been decorated for the event. About seventy-five are to enter the lodge tonight, with the prospect that many more will join very soon.

POLITICS.

THE WATCHMAN.

TREND OF POLITICAL THOUGHT AND ACTION.

By the Sentry on His Beat.

Melville Dozier, member of the present Board of Education, and candidate for re-election issued the following statement yesterday:

"My connection with the public schools of Los Angeles dates back to 1884, when I became a teacher in the State Normal School here and where I remained for twenty-two successive years, most of the time as vice-president of the institution. During that time thousands of the present teachers of this State were in my classes and came under my direct personal influence. Hundreds of those teachers are now teaching in the Los Angeles schools, and many of them are principals of some of the largest schools of the city. Between these teachers and myself, and as far as I know, between every other teacher in the schools and myself, exists the most cordial relations and the most perfect mutual confidence. This situation is in absolute contravention to what is published in a pamphlet entitled 'Talking Points for Campaign Workers in Citizens' Better Schools Campaign,' in which it is stated that to 'Mrs. Ashley, Mr. McCormick and Mr. Dozier of the present board is largely due the lack of harmony in the public schools.' The falseness of this charge of lack of harmony in the schools is generally conceded by the community, which recognizes the fact that the schools are in the most prosperous condition and are making the most satisfactory progress of any time in their history.

"In the circular it is further stated that 'should any one of these three candidates (Mrs. Grace P. Ashley, C. J. McCormick and Mr. Dozier) be elected, there would be carried over into the new board the old animosities and antagonisms which now prevail and which have interfered seriously with the work of the schools.' No statement could be further from the truth than this one just quoted, nor could any statements be more damaging to the schools and the community. It is generally conceded that the present board has been more harmonious in its mutual relations and in its relations with the teachers, and the schools, than any Board of Education for many years past."

A committee of veterans of all American wars has indorsed George E. Cryer for Mayor and Benjamin Rogardus for the City Council. Of these two candidates, the appeal of the committee to the voters state: "They have faithfully served their country in time of war and we believe they are thoroughly qualified by ability and experience to perform the duties of the office they seek." The members of the veterans' committee are L. Sunshine, Claire Woolwine, John Kirby, George W. Mobley, W. T. Kendrick, Jr., Harry Insley, Channing H. Follette, Mark L. Herron, Elias V. Rosenkranz and Harold S. Ryerson, World War veterans; C. S. Humphrey, Z. T. Snyder, S. D. Howard, W. H. Merahon, M. A. Packard, C. H. Haskins, John Davis and G. H. Wischusen, U.S.A., Civil War veterans, and Frank W. Inns, Oliver Fender, F. T. Sheppe, Herman F. Martens, Edward F. Schuls, A. C. Munson, Albert I. Tierman, J. S. Shafer, E. A. Lane, and P. P. Roller, Spanish War Veterans.

Veterans of the World War have indorsed Councilman Sanborn for re-election in the following appeal issued to the voters:

LOS ANGELES, June 3,

We, the undersigned, veterans of the World War, heartily indorse and pledge ourselves to support W. J. Sanborn in his candidacy for re-election to the City Council and recommend to the ex-service men and the others of this city that they will do all in their power to secure his return to office on June 7, 1921. Throughout his long service to the public, Mr. Sanborn has not only been a true friend to the service men but has courageously stood for the things that are for the best interests of our city.

[Signed]

Clifford E. Hughes, Arthur Kurze, Milton Andrew, Voltaire Perkins, Ray E. Barnett, Leo Daze, Walter Brinkop.

Councilman Sanborn's son, Lynn D. Sanborn, served during the World War as a member of Battery B, Forty-eighth Field Artillery, and was honorably discharged from active service at the close of the war.

Walter R. Leeds, who was appointed on January 1, last, by Mayor Snyder as a member of the Board of Public Utilities to succeed Fulton R. Lane, announced yesterday that he had notified the Mayor that he (Mr. Leeds) intended to resign his commissionership after June 10, regardless of whether Mayor Snyder is re-elected or George E. Cryer is chosen next Tuesday as Mayor. Mr. Leeds said that there wa sno politics in his coming resignation and that it is due simply to the fact that his services on the board required more time that he can afford to take away from his law practice. Since the primaries, Mr. Leeds has been in charge of the Snyder headquarters as campaign manager.

President McCormick's re-election to the Board of Education is generally conceded. His six years' experience on the board, the last two years as its president, will be a great asset to him and to the citizens in solving properly the many educational and business problems that are presented to the board constantly. It is pointed out that President McCormick has shown that he is capable, fair and popular alike with school-teachers and pupils of the schools, as well as with the citizens of Los Angeles generally, and his re-election is especially urged at this time, when the vast details of the board's $9,500,000 school building program have been thoroughly prepared and partially completed. President McCormick's vote, it is expected, will place him high up among the successful candidates.

Supervisor Jonathan S. Dodge has indorsed the candidacy of former City Auditor W. C. Mushet for the City Council. In a letter to Mushet, Supervisor Dodge said: "Your former work as an official of the city of Los Angeles has been highly commended from all sides, and I feel sure that you could render especial service to the city if you should be elected as a member of the City Council. As an expert auditor you will be able to give advice on matters of prime importance to the taxpayers, and it would please me very much to see you selected at the election on Tuesday."

SONS OF THE REVOLUTION FOR LIBRARY.

Board of Directors Asks Members of Society to Vote Bonds.

Appealing to members of the organization to vote for the Public Library bonds at Tuesday's election, the board of directors of the society, Sons of the Revolution in California, yesterday announced the following resolution:

"The board of directors of the Los Angeles Public Library has by the proper action of the City Council of the city of Los Angeles gained the opportunity of presenting to the citizenship of the municipality a proposition to vote an issue of municipal bonds in the total sum of $2,500,000 for the purpose of procuring a site and erecting of a municipal library building. The election is to be held Tuesday and for reasons hereinafter set forth an appeal is made to the society, Sons of the Revolution, for the help of its members and co-operation in securing the required vote to adopt this bond issue.

"Resolved, by the board of directors of the society, Sons of the Revolution, that this project of the Public Library is most needed, meritorious and worthy of support in every way as a civic proposition, and therefore it is indorsed from that standpoint.

"Resolved, further, that this society most peculiarly owes it as a duty to support the proposition because of the close affiliation between the Public Library and our own library in historical and genealogical investigation. The two libraries have always worked hand in hand and are a complement. This society needs an enlargement of the Public Library as much as any one organization in the city, and,

"Therefore, be it recommended to the membership of our organization that each and everyone do what he can to advance the cause and to secure votes for the proposition."

MUST CLEAN UP CITY, BANQUETERS ARE TOLD

VICE CONDITIONS DISCUSSED AT MORALS EFFICIENCY ASSOCIATION DINNER.

"We want a clean city government and we will and must stand behind the man who will give it to use," declared C. A. De Coo, president of the Morals Efficiency Association, last night at a banquet given in the Union League Club to John H. Pelletier, newly appointed executive secretary of the association.

A letter from Capt. Shackford, retiring commander of the Submarine Base at San Pedro, to the association, containing the following, was read to the gathering:

"It is not that a large city should be the cleanest or one of the cleanest cities in our country, but our standard should be that it be absolutely clean. This idea of being satisfied with halfway measures is the reason that many never reach the top of the ladder and thereby show lack of progress and advancement."

Mrs. Cora Deal Lewis came out frankly at the meeting with the charge that "Our red light abatement law is not being enforced in Los Angeles at this time and might as well face that fact."

In commenting on the suggestions made upon a newcomer, Los Angeles Capt. Pelletier said that the city has a splendid reputation for hospitality, but that must see to it that young men and women, whether in the employ of the government or seeking employment, who come here are given every safeguard. Until is done we will not have done our duty as a community."

Dr. John R. Haynes read a letter to show that there is less social ease at Fort MacArthur than at other government land stations.

Other speakers included Charles Toll, Mrs. J. B. Steere, Dana Bartlett, Buron Fitts, T. Lee Woolwine, Mrs. Hester C. Miller and Capt. F. E. Woodbridge.

A mass meeting will be held under the auspices of the body in the new auditorium of the University of Southern California the evening of the 23th inst. for the purpose of interesting the general public in the work of the organization.

ADMITTED AS CITIZENS.

U. S. District Judge Trippet yesterday admitted twenty-seven to American citizenship, divided as follows: Subjects of Great Britain eleven; Germany, five; Austria four; Italy, four, and one each Russia, the Netherlands and Norway. Quite a number were turned back for further information.

LOSES SUIT OVER WATER

The State Supreme Court yesterday overruled San Bernardino's contentions in the water suit brought against Riverside in 1915. The suit involved the right of the city and the Riverside Water Company to take additional water from the basin in San Bernardino county, San Bernardino seeking to limit Riverside to the surplus waters. Riverside contended it was getting only 300 inches from the basin, and claimed the right to take the 600 inches the water company sold the city in 1913.

The court holds the defendants are entitled to a declaration of permanent priority to the amount of water now used. This reverses the judgment entered in the Superior Court of San Bernardino county in 1917 by Judge Finlayson of Los Angeles, with directions to enter such a declaration on the cross-complaint with the right to take evidence to make additional findings if necessary.

The cost of the litigation to date is about $180,000. The trial covered 143 days.

IT OVER WATER.

The court holds the defendants are entitled to a declaration of their ...manent priority to the amount of water now used. This reversed the judgment entered in the Superior Court of San Bernardino county in 1917 by Judge Finlayson of Los Angeles, with directions to enter such a declaration on the findings with the right to take evidence to make additional findings if necessary.

The cost of the litigation to date is about $160,000. The testimony covered 143 days.

ment law is not being enforced here in Los Angeles at this time and might as well face that fact."

In commenting on the impression made upon a newcomer to Los Angeles Capt. Pelletier said that the city has a splendid reputation for hospitality, but that "we must see to it that young men and women, whether in the employ of the government or seeking civilian employment, who come here, are given every safeguard. Until this is done we will not have done our duty as a community."

Dr. John R. Haynes read figures to show that there is less social disease at Fort MacArthur than at other government land stations.

Other speakers included Mrs. Charles Toll, Mrs. J. B. Stearns, Mrs. Dana Bartlett, Buron Fitts, Thomas Lee Woolwine, Mrs. Hester Griffith Miller and Capt. F. E. Woodley.

A mass meeting will be held under the auspices of the association in the new auditorium at the University of Southern California on the evening of the 15th inst., for the purpose of interesting the general public in the work of the organization.

FILM STARS ON STAGE.

BESSIE BARRISCALE AND MISS YOUNG TO SHIFT.

By Grace Kingsley.

Pretty soon all our lovely film stars will be gathered into the New York stage fold, if the present order of things continues. Mildred Harris is going into vaudeville, and Dorothy Gish is to try out in a new play with her husband, James Rennie. Pauline Frederick is to return to the stage under management of Al Woods, and Sessue Hayakawa and Carlyle Blackwell are both scheduled for the two-a-day, while Frank Keenan opens within a few weeks in this city in a revival of "Rip Van Winkle."

And now the latest are Bessie Barriscale and Clara Kimball Young. Miss Barriscale announced yesterday that she is to open in New York at the Belmont Theater, October 3, in "The Skirt," a comedy written for her by her husband, Howard Hickman, who is also to appear in the piece. The comedy is adapted from a screen success of Miss Barriscale's called "Two-Gun Betty," and was tried out with signal success up in Oakland a few weeks ago.

Mr. Hickman has been in New York, but returns home today, and August 1 he and Miss Barriscale will go East to commence rehearsals of "The Skirt." The play will be taken to Washington, D. C., first, and perhaps will also play Boston and Philadelphia before going into the New York house.

"I am deeply delighted," declared Miss Barriscale, "to be returning to the stage, though, of course, I'm sorry to leave my many friends and my nice home here."

Miss Barriscale, as will be remembered, was leading woman at the old Belasco Theater locally, and created several important roles in Morosco plays, notably Luana in "The Bird of Paradise." She also made a big hit in "The Rose of the Rancho." Afterward she went into pictures and became an Ince star, scoring notably in a number of successes.

Clara Kimball Young is to make her stage debut in London, according to her statement, after she has made a trip through Italy and Southern France.

Token from White House.

Additional eclat is to be lent the Actors' Fund Festival through the interest that Mrs. Warren G. Harding, wife of the President of the United States, has manifested in the affair. Mrs. R. D. Shepherd, vice-chairman of the grand stand concessions, received a charming letter yesterday from Mrs. Harding, wishing her all success with the festival and inclosing an engraving of the White House, autographed with her name and good wishes.

This picture will be sold by the Assistance League at the grand stand concessions.

Mrs. Shepherd has appointed as her captains the day of the festival Mrs. William Carlton, Miss Gladys Hansen and Miss Bijou Hernandez, who have just come from New York to take part, and William H. Crane, Miss Virginia Woods, Mrs. Alexander B. Barrett, Mrs. Chester T. Hoag, Miss Longman, R. D. MacLean, Miss Gene Webster, Mrs. Arthur Forbes, Mrs. Ferdinand Pinney Earle, Richard Bennett, William Carlton and Robert Edeson.

Mrs. Hancock Banning is chairman of this committee and Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Hansen Moore and Mrs. Willoughby Rodman are her vice-chairmen.

Warner Baxter in Pictures.

Exceptions, says the old saw, only prove the rule, and so we have Warner Baxter and his wife, Winifred Bryson, lately playing star roles in "Lombardi, Ltd.," in New York, and formerly of the Morosco stock company here, going into pictures.

Mr. Baxter starts Monday in support of Ethel Clayton in her next Famous Players-Lasky vehicle, "Her Own Money," adapted from a stage play of the same name, while Miss Bryson hasn't been back from New York two days when she was engaged to play a leading role in support of Wanda Hawley in the latter's newest Realart picture.

However, it's quite possible that both these dips into pictures may be temporary, as both players are under contract to Oliver Morosco. In fact, Mr. Baxter came west as new leading man for the Morosco, and was to have taken the lead in "Three Faces East," which will follow Adam and Eva," but he had the picture offer and so managed to get himself "leaned" for the production.

The play to follow "Three Faces East" at the Morosco is Clare Kummer's "Rollo's Wild Oat," which has been one of the hits in New York the past season. In this Mr. Baxter will appear as the stage-struck Rollo.

Charlie Chaplin, Author.

Charlie Chaplin, who has something of a reputation as a film comedian, has now turned author. He has contributed an article to "The One and Only," the unique book which will be given to the holder of the lucky number at the actors' fund festival at the Speedway today. The book also contains more than fifty articles by the country's best-known writers, including Sir Gilbert Parker, Elinor Glyn, Rupert Hughes, Gouverneur Morris, Rita Weiman, Edward Knoblock and others.

Eastern Lasky Closing.

Score one again for the California sunshine when it comes to picture making. From Jesse L. Lasky, vice-president of Famous Players-Lasky, comes the announcement that the Eastern studios of that organization are closing down. The reason given is that the California summer weather is infinitely to be preferred to the Eastern climate for picture purposes.

"The closing down of the Long Island studios does not mean any decrease in production," said Lasky, "but the producing units will be transferred to the Los Angeles studios as soon as the Paramount pictures now in the making are completed.

"We shall open again in Long Island in the fall, but for the present we find the Los Angeles climate, now that the rainy season is over, superior to the Eastern climate for pictures."

ARGUMENTS TIMED.

Day and Half Allowed Attorneys Each Side in Berry Bunko Case.

Three days will be allowed opposing attorneys for argument in the case of Otis B. Berry, formerly assistant cashier of the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank, it was decided yesterday by Judge Reeve, before whom Berry is on trial. Testimony in the case was completed yesterday by the defense, represented by Attorney Paul Schenck, and three more witnesses will be heard in rebuttal on Monday. The case is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist.-Attys. Stanford and Keyes. It has been on trial for three weeks. Each side will have a day and a half for argument. It was expected the jury would be given instructions on Friday.

Berry is accused of aiding various bunko men in their operations in this city. Two indictments covering seven counts, were returned against him by the grand jury.

The Three Graces, so-called, Helene Chadwick, Rene Adoree and Molly Malone, will be seen in Tom Moore's picture, "Made in Heaven," the attraction at the California Theater beginning tomorrow. "Made in Heaven" is another of those delightful stories of Irish life in New York that have made Tom Moore so popular. It was written by William Hurlbut, produced under the direction of Victor Schertzinger, and pictures the star as an Irishman just landed from the auld country. He becomes a fireman, and because of his bravery and natural wit, marries into society.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY.

Cosmetics, War, Wages and Politics in Sermon Topics for Tomorrow.

Tomorrow will stand out as "Be Practical Sunday" in many of the local churches, since at that time a number of ministers will talk in direct and down to earth terms of matters having to do with everyday problems and issues generally related to the realm of the social service expert, the face doctor or the student of politics and government.

In more than one church the importance of the selection of the right kind of Mayor at Tuesday's election will be given special emphasis, numerous pastors seeing in this particular contest something more significant than the ordinary struggle for the control of a city's government.

Likewise, such varying topics as the negro problem, working conditions in a certain industry in this city, the moral obligation to be intelligent, if possible, Col. Harvey, international disarmament, and the limiting of the use of cosmetics by high school girls (probably but another phase of the broad question of disarmament) will be discussed, as will other themes gradually shading off from social service to four-square theology—and a little of the wrath of God thrown in for good measure.

JAPANESE BILLY SUNDAY.
IMMANUEL PRESBYTERIAN.

"The Billy Sunday of Japan," Rev. Paul M. Kanamori of Tokio, who arrived in this city yesterday, will speak at the evening service in Immanuel Presbyterian Church tomorrow, his subject being "Half a Century of Christian Experience in Japan." Methods the the American evangelist have been duplicated by his Japanese prototype, who is credited with having converted 3061 persons in meetings extending over six evenings in his native land. At the morning service Dr. Herbert Booth Smith will talk on "What Presbyterians Believe," and will read a copy of an alleged death warrant issued against Jesus.

"CLARA SMITH HAMON."
TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

In addition to discussing the coming municipal election, the comparative modesty of men and women, preachers as designers of women's dresses and what Los Angeles most needs, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher will discuss tomorrow night at the Temple Baptist Church the question of whether or not Clara Smith Hamon should enter the movies. In the morning he will speak on "The Search for Wisdom; Who is the Wise Man?" Dr. E. C. Moore, president of the southern branch of the organization, will take part in the morning service.

"REMODELING A WIFE."
WESTLAKE PRESBYTERIAN.

"Is it the Province of a Minister or Ministers to Determine How Women Shall Dress?" will be the subject of Dr. G. A. Briegleb, pastor of the Westlake Presbyterian Church, at the service tomorrow evening. In the morning he will talk on "Ideals for Times of Trial and Suffering."

"LOOKING GLASSES."
FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

A five-minute sermon for boys and girls will be delivered by Dr. E. E. Helms, pastor of the First Methodist Church, at tomorrow morning's service, his subject being "Looking Glasses." His principal address will be on "Chenaniah the Chorister." In the evening, special emphasis will be placed on the musical phase of the service, and the pastor's sermon topic will be "The Stirring Story of a Great Hymn."

"CHOOSING A MAYOR."
CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.

"The Kind of Mayor Los Angeles Ought to Have" will be the subject of an address by Dr. C. F. Winbigler at the evening service at the Central Baptist Church. In the morning he will preach on "The Passover." The Swedish quartet will sing at both services.

DR. WALKER RETURNS.
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Dr. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, has returned from the meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly at Winona Lake. He was chairman of the standing committee on foreign missions and was elected for a three-year term on the executive commission of the general assembly. He is also a member of the committee on organic union of all Protestant churches. He will preach tomorrow morning on "The Flood Tide of Opportunity and the American Church." His evening topic will be "Breezes from Winona Lake."

CHILDREN'S DAY.
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

Children's Day will be observed at the First Congregational Church tomorrow morning at the time of the regular services. There will be exercises by the younger departments and a short sermon by Dr. Carl S. Patton, the pastor. The junior department will give an original dramatic presentation of "The Growth of the New Testament." Communion service will be at 4:30 p.m.; in the evening the motion picture, "The Inside of the Cup" will be shown again.

PRESIDING ELDER.
AT TRINITY METHODIST.

Rev. C. R. Gray, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district, will preach tomorrow morning at Trinity Methodist Church on "God's Tenderest Ministry," and in the evening he will discuss the question "How Far to the Horizon." The pastor, Rev. R. P. Shuler, expects to return from Texas next week and to preach next Sunday. At that time he will speak of revivals and court proceedings in Texas.

"THE MEANEST EMPLOYER."
CHURCH OF THE OPEN DOOR.

Dr. R. A. Torrey, pastor of the Church of the Open Door, will speak tomorrow on the subject, "A Merciless Exposure of the Meanest Employer in Los Angeles and a Passionate Plea for a Strike and a Boycott." In the morning he will talk on "How to Interpret the Bible so as to Find its True Meaning." There will be a fifteen-minute organ recital preceding each service.

FIXING THEIR FACES.
ST. PAUL'S PRO-CATHEDRAL.

At the evening service at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral tomorrow Dean MacCormack will hold a question box service and will answer, "as far as may be," the following questions: What ought to be the standard for high school girls as to the use of cosmetics? Who are you going to vote for Tuesday? Is Mrs. Stilson of New York a real Christian Scientist? What is the Smith-Towner bill? What should be done with the 34,000 nameless children born every year in the United States? What do you think of Col. Harvey? Has good financing anything to do with happiness in the married state? In the morning he will preach on "The Unfinished Task of the United States."

THE NEGRO PROBLEM.
BIBLE INSTITUTE.

"Solving the Negro Problem" will be the subject of an address to be given at the Bible Institute Auditorium tomorrow afternoon by Dr. French E. Oliver. The service will be presided over by Dr. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, and by Rev. Robert W. Holman will briefly outline his plan for evangelical work among his own people in the South. The Actors' Fund Festival, with its dazzling array of talent, beauty and costumes, will be in full swing at the Speedway today. The gates will be thrown open to the public at 9 a.m.

For the admission fee—$1.50 for grown-ups and 50 cents for the kiddies—a million-dollar performance will be offered, the sponsors declare, without a cent of additional cost. All proceeds are to go toward providing funds for disabled members of the theatrical and allied professions who in yesteryears have brought joy and happiness to others.

Besides the array of feminine beauty, exquisite costumes, and talent, and the scores of sidesplitting attractions, practically every available star of the screen and speaking stage professions will be on hand to do his or her share in making the event memorable.

Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, who will appear in several scenes, Harold Lloyd, Charles Ray, Hoot Gibson, "Bill" Hart, Will Rogers, Dustin Farnum, Tom Mix, J. Warren Kerrigan, Bebe Daniels, Colleen Clifford and scores of others of equal fame who will form a great parcel of the colossal offering, will join the throngs as spectators.

The festival will have its thrills, as participated in by 200 cowboy riders of the western plains, it will have its spectacular parade of a prairie schooner by the cowboy riders; its Roman derby of chariots, its horse and automobile contests, its parade of famed movie comedians and circus clowns, vaudeville shows, airplane stunts, fireworks exhibitions, and personal appearances of screen and stage notables.

In the super-pageant, "The Adornment of Woman," will appear more than 700 of the best-known screen and stage stars and the choicest selection of comely damsels in all creation. Among these will be Mary Pickford, May Allison, Rene Adoree, Geraldine Farrar, Bebe Daniels, Dora Brenner, Clara Horton, Dorothy Phillips and scores of others equally noted, who, in dazzling costumes, will impersonate famed women of all history.

The scenes of the mammoth enterprise, including Daniel Frohman, president of the Actors' Fund and general chief, have been laid in the days when on all highway and byway sea pirate methods of speech ruled and it is the "you get no change" motto that is their motto.

They kept nothing, but what the public wishes to give will be their motto.

Thus, that there shall be no surcease of the public's demand for more thrills, there will be the pleasure, soon, the great avenue of sidewalk entertainment and freaks, which several hundred of the most beautiful matrons and debutantes of the smart social sets will portrayers of ice cream cones, popped corn and all sorts of edibles that may appeal to the fancies of the throngs.

And along these lanes of amusement will be the super-side shows of Coleman and Dick Ferris—with their "million-dollar beauty girls," millions of artistic paintings and orchestral preparations and in other sections of the huge area, will be the 42 [illegible] replicas of gambling dens, dance halls and devices; the cabarets and dancing pavilions, where public may purchase dances with stars of the motion-picture world; the art studios with notables at the pen and brush on exhibition and for sale; the boxing arena, presided, in the character of Tom Sharkey, Ray's Country Store with country boy; the badger fighting pit, the out-of-door exhibitions and scores of other attractions.

Scores of members of the huge "Festival Feminine" pageant cast and the characters they will portray are as follows:

The House of Fashion, Elinor Glyn; Festival Feminine, Claire Windsor; Venus, May Allison; the Curse of Woman, Marjorie Daw; the Folly of Woman, Rubye de Remer; the Allure of Woman, Kathleen Key; the Nobility of Woman, Irene Rich; the Vengeance of Woman, Mary Thurman; the Splendor of Woman, Florence Stone; the Vanity of Desire, Rosemary Theby; the Soul of Woman, Ethel Grey Terry; Astare, Roland; the Art of Beauty, Eva Novak; the Art of Attire, Eileen Percy; the Prince of the House of Fashion, Ted Shawn; Vanity, Dorothy Phillips; Luxury, Pauline Garon; Butterfly, Ruth Renick; Queen of Love, Kathleen Clifford; Princess, Alice Terry; Rainbow of Beauty, Grace Darmond; the Bloom of Youth, Ann May; a Woman's Heart, Mabel Normand; the Folly of Love, Dorothy Devore and Vera Reynolds; and in the Romance scene from "Three Musketeers," will appear Douglas Fairbanks as D'Artagnan, Mary MacLaren as the Queen, Barbara La Marr as Milady; Lewis Stone as Louis XIII; Jean Hersholt as Armand, Nigel de Bruller as Cardinal Richelieu, and Thomas Meighan as Buckingham, and many others.

And in another special act Mary Pickford, with an augmented company, will be seen in a scene from "The Lord Fauntleroy."

HAT LEADS TO ARREST.

Woman Admits She Took Headpiece to Match Her Dress.

Because she wanted a dark purple hat to match a dark purple dress, a young woman who gave her name as Mrs. Betty La Rue and her age as 33 years, last evening took a hat from a counter in a department store at 619 South Broadway, according to Operator T. F. Reeder of the Nick Harris Detective Agency, who arrested her.

After she was taken to the City Jail, the girl, wearing a pink hat trimmed with a light purple hat which she had taken from the same counter Thursday evening. This, she said, did not match her dress so she decided the store last evening and bought out a darker headpiece. She is charged with grand larceny.

SERMON TOPICS FOR TOMORROW.

"Christian citizens are convinced that nations are being guided today in part by motives which are false to the best interests of national and international life, because of the constant preparation for war and the increase of armaments." The President and Congress are urged, in the resolution, to bring about an international conference to remedy the menacing situation.

Six thousand congregations will be represented by the men and women who attend the gathering.

REVIVES OLD METHODS.

This address will be the first in a series designed to "test out the temper of his people" and to see whether or not there is a serious desire on their part to have the Scriptures expounded to them in the manner so common a few generations ago and now almost unheard from the pulpit. The gospel, according to St. John, perhaps the most tempting of the gospels from the standpoint of the expositor, will be analyzed under the general subject, "Jesus Christ in the Gospel by John." The experiment will be garnished with musical selections.

Death Removes Dr. Fisher, Prominent as Presbyterian Church Organizer.

Rev. Charles McQueen Fisher, D.D., who has been pastor of several churches in Los Angeles and vicinity and was six years representative in Japan of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, died Thursday night at his home, 1433 Armadale avenue. Dr. Fisher retired from parochial work three years ago because of ill health.

Rev. Herbert H. Fisher, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, is a brother, and the Misses Mary and Eva Fisher of South Pasadena, sisters. Dr. Fisher also leaves a widow and a daughter, Mrs. Muriel Douglas Wise.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at 10 a.m. at the West Adams Presbyterian Church, and burial will be in Inglewood Cemetery.

Dr. Fisher was born Oct. 4, 1856, in Peoria, Ill. He was graduated from Monmouth College in 1879 and from the Princeton Theological Seminary in 1882. While in Japan he organized five churches. Returning to this country he was ten years pastor of what is now the West Adams Presbyterian Church and later was pastor of a suburban church at Philadelphia. Then he returned to California and became pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Monrovia, where he remained five years. He next took charge of the Calvary Presbyterian Church in South Pasadena. After nine years there he went to the Presbyterian Church at Zamita, his last charge.

CITY RENT LAW FOUND INVALID.

Tenant Loses in Test Case Where Boost Was Made.

Judge Finds Investment, Not Value, Was Made Basis.

Says Provision Might Work Hardship on All Sides.

In a sweeping decision yesterday in the case of I. Itkin, a landlord, against P. Ginsberg, a tenant, involving an increase in the rent paid by Mr. Ginsberg, Judge J. P. Wood holds that the city ordinance limiting rents is invalid.

Mr. Itkin advanced the rent on Mr. Ginsberg from $30 to $40 a month. Mr. Ginsberg offered to pay $30 a month, asserting it was the full amount prescribed by the city ordinance. Mr. Itkin sued for unlawful detainer. When the case came to trial before Judge Wood, Mr. Ginsberg set up the new city rent ordinance as his defense.

Judge Wood gave judgment in favor of the landlord and denied the later motion of the tenant to reopen the case in order to present the city ordinance as a defense. He declared that the ordinance prescribed that the rental shall not exceed 11 per cent upon the actual investment of the owner of the premises. The court stated that if the ordinance had said the value of the property instead of the actual investment, the situation would have been different.

Under the ordinance, rental is based on the actual amount paid for property regardless of its value, the court ruled. In the case on trial, Judge Wood held that while the city has, under recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court, power in emergency in housing conditions to reasonably limit rents, "the ordinance here is entirely inappropriate as a proper exercise of the police power, and can only result in the taking of property of a landlord without due process of law where the actual value is in excess of the actual investment and, on the other hand, in imposing extortionate rental upon a tenant where the landlord has paid more than the property is worth."

INVESTIGATE FOR THEFT.

Police yesterday began an investigation of the theft of furs valued at over $10,000 from the residence of Hector Geiger, 7248 Hillside avenue, Hollywood, several days ago. The robbery was brought to the attention of the police by operators from the Burns Detective Agency. Investigating officers learned yesterday that the Geigers are in New York City.

COUNTY WEALTH BREAKS RECORD.

Over Sixteen Millions in Cash Stored in Banks and Safety Vaults.

The county is prosperous. Yesterday Chairman Dodge of the Board of Supervisors, County Auditor Payne and Dep. Dist.-Atty Van Cott counted the cash in the county treasury and elsewhere, the result showing $16,886,008, the largest sum in the history of the county. The larger part of this wealth is either deposited or stored in city banks or safety deposit vaults. In the safe of the County Treasurer, however, is more than $2,000,000. Protection is guaranteed by the installation of the latest burglar alarm system. There are call bells to the Sheriff's office and to other county departments. In addition to these sums are $1,800,000 of surplus funds invested by the county in Liberty and State highway bonds.

Authorizes Sale of City Lot for New Hotel Site.

One business venture was ended and another was given a start yesterday when the City Council suspended the rules and adopted an ordinance authorizing the sale of the water department lot at Fifth and Olive streets for $250,000. The W. W. Mines Company bought it for a syndicate which will erect the Biltmore Hotel of Los Angeles on this and adjoining lots.

The lot in question was bought ten years ago as a prospective home for the water department at $195,000. Later the plan to erect an office building there was abandoned. The City Council voted to sell the lot for not less than $250,000, and it got that amount, minus $6750 commission.

The purchasers of the lot have agreed to donate a twenty-foot strip along one side of the lot for the widening of Fifth street in case it develops that the city wants to widen the thoroughfare between Olive and Grand avenue.

CLUB CHOOSES NEW OFFICERS.

in a dark closet revealed photography, a broken thermometer showed how to make indigo dyes, but Mme. Curie, by her discovery, has set more men to thinking and more men to dreaming than Cleopatra in the height of her vampirehood dreamed of doing. When the process of releasing the energy from radium is discovered the industry of the whole world will be revolutionized. Some day that discovery will be made. Hundreds of chemists are working on it now. One small briquette of it would heat a room for 1800 years. Radium looks like salt. Enough of it to flavor one small plate of soup could release power enough to run all the automobiles, all the machines, all the street cars of Los Angeles for one year. It could be power for all the light of the city and keep Broadway lighted every night, it would run every device for housework in the city." These were only a few of the marvels of radium as told by the professor.

In the morning session a resolution presented by Mrs. S. M. Johnson asking the club to indorse the library bonds was unanimously passed. Miss Therese Lavy, as chairman of the club activities in the Salvation Army drive, reported $275 contributed by the club and $80,000 raised in the drive.

FILM BEAUTY WEDS STAR OF ORPHEUM.

Ned Norworth, Orpheum star with Blossom Seeley, and Hazell Howell, leading woman for Carter de Haven, were married Wednesday, but no announcement was made until Thursday night, when many of their friends of the stage and screen gathered at the Casa del Mar. Blossom Seeley, Louise Glaum, Katherine Clifford, Harold Lloyd, Mildred Davis, Sammy Miller, Benny Fields, Allan Brooks, Harry Stover and many others did vaudeville turns for the entertainment of Mr. and Mrs. Norworth.

TERM IN PRISON FOR ACTOR; WIFE TO SUE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, June 3.—D. H. Richardson, former actor, was today sentenced to from one to fourteen years in prison for forgery. At the same time one of his wives, Mrs. Arlene Richardson of Otay, who has lived with him for the past ten years, announced that she would file suit for divorce. Richardson confessed to the forgery of many checks, but he insisted that Mrs. Arlene Richardson is not his wife, but that Rena Rogers Richardson, whom he married last week in Santa Ana, and who now is in jail here, is his only legal mate.

TO ASK MOTHER'S FREEDOM

Freedom for Eric Mullicane until her trial on the 29th inst., on a charge of slaying her nameless babe, will be sought today, when Attorneys Arthur Verge and David Welts will file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the District Court of Appeals.

Affidavits will accompany the petition to show that a bond for $50,000 has been prepared for the young woman's bail, and that her release from custody is desired in order that she may be placed in a sanatorium under physicians' care so that she may recover her health sufficiently to undergo the ordeal of her trial. Mr. Verge stated yesterday that the petition will be filed this morning.

The action is a result of the efforts of Mrs. Angela C. Kaufman, a wealthy woman who has been helping Miss Mullicane in every way possible.

Previous application for bail was made when Miss Mullicane entered formal denial to the murder indictment. At that time Judge Houser, before whom she pleaded, declared that he could not grant bail because it would establish an undesirable precedent for first-degree murder cases. Opposition to the new attempt for the girl's release is assured from the District Attorney's office.

UNION PACIFIC HEAD TO MAKE VISIT HERE.

WILL STUDY HARBOR IN PLAN TO EXPAND SYSTEM'S TIDE-WATER TERMINAL.

Carl Gray, president of the Union Pacific Railroad, which recently acquired full ownership of the Los Angeles and Salt Lake system, is coming to Los Angeles at an early date to complete arrangements for an important expansion of the Union Pacific's new tidewater terminal, according to advices received here yesterday from the East.

Mr. Gray is expected to remain in Southern California several weeks, giving particular attention to the possibilities and potentialities of Los Angeles Harbor as one of the Pacific Coast ports destined to play a large part in the growing trade with the Orient.

Representatives of the Union Pacific now in the East are authority for the statement that one of the most important developments to follow Mr. Gray's visit here will be the double tracking, relaying and rock-ballasting of the line between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City.

It is intimated that the Union Pacific proposes to make an aggressive campaign for the freight and passenger business of the Southwest and that other developmental projects are contemplated.

The possibilities of Los Angeles as the warehouse and distributing center not only for the Orient, but also for all of the regenerated trade of Mexico and South America, is said to be one of the principal considerations involved in Mr. Gray's early visit to this section.

FOR SURGEON'S WIDOW.

Services to be Held This Afternoon for Mrs. G. L. Hutchinson.

Services for Mrs. Lillie Hutchinson, widow of Dr. George L. Hutchinson, former chief surgeon for the Pacific Electric, will be conducted at 2 p.m. today in the family residence, 510 South Westmoreland avenue. Dr. Hutchinson died three months ago and Mrs. Hutchinson died Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Hutchinson were married at Colton shortly after the doctor's arrival there in 1888. They came to Los Angeles twenty years ago and for a number of years he was chief surgeon for the railroad. Mrs. Hutchinson leaves two daughters, Misses Ruth and Edith Hutchinson, and two sisters, Fannie Dr. Gamble of this city, and Mrs. Charles W. Robinson of Bloomington, Ill. The service this afternoon will be in charge of Dr. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. Burial will be at Inglewood. The body is at the Ivy H. Overholtzer Company.

To Tell Eye Men About Freaks in Colors of Skin.

Did you ever see a blonde South Sea islander?

Perhaps not, because they are comparatively few in number. The reason for this will be explained by Dr. R. C. Augustine, optical specialist, during conservation-of-vision week, beginning here Monday, stated Dr. Burt O. Kinney, chairman of the committee on arrangements yesterday.

Many unusual facts regarding optical peculiarities will be explained by the speakers in addresses before all civic, commercial and educational bodies in Los Angeles and surrounding towns, he stated.

Shop employees will be told how to care for their vision and protect their eyes while working.

Employers of 500 concerns will gather in a special session to learn proper lighting to protect the eyes of their workers and increase efficiency by reducing nervous troubles.

Student bodies of Los Angeles high schools and those in surrounding towns will be addressed by Dr. Augustine.

FLOOD CONTROL BILL IS SIGNED.

Appropriates Three Millions for Los Angeles Work.

Payments from State to Run Over Ten-Year Period.

Will Insure Completion of Vital County System.

Assembly Bill No. 611, appropriating $3,000,000 for Los Angeles county flood control work, was signed by Gov. Stephens yesterday. This bill was one of those presented to the Legislature by the Board of Supervisors.

Regarding the effects of the Governor's action, Flood Control Engineer Reagan said:

"The bill appropriating $3,000,000 State money for the Los Angeles county flood control district, which has just been signed, provides for the payment of this amount of funds by the State, to the district, covering a period of ten years, or $300,000 each year. About $1,000,000 of this appropriation will be ultimately spent between Los Angeles and Long Beach. Other portions of it will be spent for the construction of dams in the San Gabriel Mountains.

"The immediate starting of the Pacoima dam is perhaps the greatest desire of the Board of Supervisors, and the first installment of $300,000 of State money, which we should get this year, will be applied upon this big job provided the people of Van Nuys go through with their proposition of a local bond issue to the amount of $500,000 to aid in this large job. If the Van Nuys people will do this at once, then the Supervisors immediately will let the contract for the job. I am fearful, however, if they are dilatory of voting this bond issue, or turn it down, that these State funds may be spent elsewhere, as much as we would like to spend them on the Pacoima."

Chairman Dodge of the Board of Supervisors declared that this bill is the most important of the fifty the Supervisors presented to the Legislature.

"This money will come to us at the rate of $300,000 a year through a period of years and will enable the county to complete the great flood control system. It will not insure any new projects, however, in flood control work," he said.

"We will now be able to put in permanent gates at the Devil's Gate dam, and to complete the dams at Pacoima and San Dimas. These dams will keep the flood waters in the mountains."

BURON FITTS WILL TALK TO LEGION MEN.

Burton Fitts, State commander of the American Legion, will address Victory Post, No. 54, Monday night at the post headquarters, 827½ South Hill street. His talk will be confined to a detailed explanation of the various acts adopted at the last session of the Legislature for the benefit of ex-service men.

WHAT MADE THE CHANGE?

This Woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a New Woman

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I had bearing-down pains so badly I could hardly stand up. I was white and very thin and nervous, had a poor appetite and weighed 1 pounds. I took ten bottles without missing one dose and gave it a fair trial. When I finished the last bottle everyone asked me what made the wonderful change in me. I told them about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I recommend it wherever I can. I give you permission to publish this letter to help suffering women as your remedies are a godsend and made a new woman of me."—Mrs. F. A. BAKER, 4749 Butler St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Why will women drag around day after day, suffering from backache, bearing-down pains, nervousness and "the blues," enduring a miserable existence when they have such evidence as the above that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable remedy for such troubles. For nearly forty years this grand old root and herb medicine has been restoring the women of America to health.

PORT NOTES.

Bringing 2500 tons of general cargo, principally steel products, but with a variety of general cargo ranging from canned goods to pianos, the Isthmian Line freighter Steel Inventor arrived yesterday from New York. The vessel was loaded to capacity for Los Angeles Harbor and San Francisco.

The Steel Inventor, on her last voyage out of the local harbor, rammed and cut in two the United States destroyer Woolsey when several hundred miles north of Panama. Several seamen from the destroyer were drowned following the collision. The Steel Inventor suffered extensive damage to her bow, but was repaired in short order and placed back in service.

Loading a heavy cargo of beans, citrus fruits and general cargo, the Williams Line freighter Willoolo sailed last night for New York, taking a capacity cargo of Pacific Coast products for the Atlantic seaboard.

The Struthers & Dixon freighter West Jena arrived yesterday morning from Singapore, via Manila and Honolulu, bringing a light cargo of Oriental goods for this port. The vessel is expected to sail north-bound today.

The British oil tanker Talbehe and Jap tanker Kiyo Maru are scheduled to sail today for Yokohama with oil cargoes.

Clearing port with thirty-eight cars of citrus fruits, the steamer Willacio left Los Angeles Harbor yesterday with the first water shipment of perishable products this month.

The load, consisting of thirty-one cars of oranges and seven of lemons, is consigned to the New York market. Shipping officials declare that water shipments of fruits and vegetables will be heavier this month than ever before. Several new boats are expected to be put into service in the near future.

Rome's Golden Baby

Every Mother Should Know Its Story.

In Italy mothers tell a story of a little baby who held the place of honor in a glorious pageant. Guiseppi's parents were so proud and happy to see him riding in the chariot of state. His skin was shining golden in the sun. He had been gilded from head to foot!

But late in the afternoon their happiness had turned to tears. Guiseppi was very ill—not that the gilt was poisonous, but because it had clogged the skin pores.

Do you know that a baby's skin is one of the little body's chief outlets for waste material?

There's a moral for mothers in Guiseppi's story. Don't powder baby's skin with anything that may clog the pores. Use on baby a special baby powder—not ordinary grown folks' talcum.

Nurses and physicians advise Johnson's Baby Powder because it is very cooling, soothing and pure, and doesn't clog the pores. Your druggist sells it.—[Advertisement.

I.W.W. CONVICTED.

Jury Finds Red Guilty of Criminal Syndicalism; Sentence Tuesday.

James Price was convicted of criminal syndicalism by a jury in Judge Willis's court yesterday after three hours of deliberation. Price, who was accused of being one of the leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World, will appear for sentence Tuesday morning in Department Seventeen.

Conviction of violation of the criminal syndicalism law carries a penalty of from one to fourteen years. Price was found guilty on two counts of the indictment which originally contained four counts. Two of these were dismissed on motion of the prosecution represented by Dep. Dist.-Atty. McCartney and Turney. Harold O. Mulks of Chicago appeared for the defendant.

The trial lasted five days. The two counts on which Price was found guilty charged that as a delegate for all industrial unions of the I.W.W. he organized and enrolled members to violate the criminal syndicalism law and that he practiced the doctrine and precepts of the I.W.W. by personal acts.

WIN BATTLE TO BURY WAR HERO SUNDAY.

American Legion Victorious in Fight to Hold Veteran's Funeral on Sabbath.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, June 3.—Ernest Hodgins, killed in France, will be given a full military funeral here Sunday afternoon. He is the first of the Santa Barbara boys whose body has been brought home for burial. His funeral will be the first in ten years held on Sunday in this city.

The Sunday funeral plan was made effective only after a general uprising of members of the American Legion, whose arrangements for the service had been rejected by local burial agencies on the ground that it had been agreed no Sunday burials were to be held in Santa Barbara.

This morning a petition for the Sunday burial was circulated, and American Legion men sent out word that unless the regular agencies would officiate, they would themselves act in the undertaking and grave-digging capacity, and that a Legion chaplain would perform the burial rites.

The controversy raged at fever heat for a time and a general call for full attendance at a mass meeting of Legion men was issued for tonight. Late this evening an armistice was declared, and later an agreement reached whereby all bodies of American soldiers, killed or dying overseas, arriving here will be buried on Sunday, the day being set apart expressly for these military funerals.

The rites for Mr. Hodgins will be held on the lawn in front of the Federal Building. Mr. Hodgins formerly was employed by the old Wells-Fargo Express Company in Pasadena.

A., of which Grimm was the secretary-treasurer. A. M. Conrad, the president of the company, is under arrest here.

GANG PREYS ON PULLMAN CARS.

Taft Oil Worker Arrested as One of Daring Band.

New York "Fence" Said to be Main Clearinghouse.

Nation-Wide Search Started to Jail All Guilty.

With the arrest Thursday night of James Walsh, an oil worker, at Taft, authorities express the opinion that they have disclosed the operation of a nation-wide organization which, for several months has been stealing equipment of the Pullman Company and selling it throughout the country by aid of a central "fence" in New York.

Walsh's wife, now in New York, has, according to officers at Bakersfield, shipped a quantity of Pullman blankets, which had been stolen, to her husband at Taft.

Walsh is charged with having disposed of some of the blankets and with having the others in his possession. He is now in jail in Bakersfield awaiting a preliminary hearing.

Police in New York have been asked to place Mrs. Walsh under arrest and, according to the officers, a nation-wide search is to be instituted for a number of railway employees thought to be members of an organized gang.

WHEN IS THEFT NOT A THEFT?

Federal Official Thinks Drug Store "Robberies" Cover Booze Misuse.

When is a robbery not a robbery? Federal Prohibition Inspector Kriete for this district doesn't know, but he wants to find out.

Chief of Police Pendegast yesterday received the following letter from Mr. Kriete and ordered it published in the official police daily bulletin:

"In view of the fact that robberies of drug stores for the purpose of obtaining whisky have been so prevalent in the last few days, this office has become skeptical as to whether or not they are bona fide. Therefore, I would greatly appreciate it if you would request officers investigating drug store robberies to make copies of their confidential reports, the same being forwarded to this office. This office then can betted determine whether or not the theft was bona fide or an inside job to cover the misuse of liquor."

OIL TANKS BURNED.

Mysterious Fire Causes Large Loss to County Highway Department.

Fire of unknown origin yesterday destroyed the oil tanks of the county highway department at Baldwin Park, burning 20,000 gallons of oil with a resultant loss of $2000. The blaze was fought throughout the afternoon but neither the men sent by the county to fight it with steam and dirt or the chemical company offered by the city of Covina was able to control the fire. The blaze was discovered about 2 o'clock.

BANDITS HOLD UP IRON WORKS.

Four Youths Get Pay Roll, but Overlook Large Sum.

Guns Cover Women in Office as Safe is Looted.

Money Returned to Victim by Order of One Robber.

Four young bandits about 4 p.m. yesterday glided in a touring car to the offices of the Martin Iron Works, 1232 East Twenty-eighth street, held up a bevy of office women, got from $500 to $600 and then sped away in their automobile. When Detective Sergeants Cahill, O'Brien and Davis arrived the bandits had made good their escape.

The pay roll had been made up, but only partly paid out when three of the young men entered the office, while the fourth remained at the wheel of the automobile. Each was armed with a pistol. None was masked. Their ages ranged from 16 to 20, report the employees of the company.

Two of the youths held up Mrs. L. Harper, the book-keeper, and Miss Vera Coles, the billing clerk. They searched the interior of the safe, but neglected to look on its top, where in a basket reposed the $5400 pay roll. However, they got what is known as the "bonus roll," extra payments to employees based on a percentage of their wages.

The third youth crossed the hall and held up Rolla C. Coffeen, vice-president and sales manager, and his stenographer, Miss Eleanor Larzalere. He got nothing.

By the time the third bandit returned to the general offices the others had taken Miss Cole's pay envelope, which was in her handbag, and also the pay envelope of Mrs. Harper. But bandit No. 3, insisted that Mrs. Harper's envelope be returned to her which was done by the snaggle-faced bandit who had taken it, and it is reported he did it with a slight blush.

FAMOUS BORDER LAND LITIGATION IS ENDED.

TITLE TO LONG-CONTESTED IMPERIAL VALLEY TRACT WON IN WASHINGTON.

After milling its way through the Federal Land Office and the State and Federal Courts, one of the most famous suits ever brought for title of land in the Imperial Valley has been decided in favor of the defendant, L. G. Fleischer. The plaintiff is the John McLaren estate, with Archie J. McClaren as administrator. The case, which concerns 160 acres near Blythe valued at $30,000, reached its ultimate goal yesterday in the United States Supreme Court.

The case began in 1908 when Mr. Fleischer contested the original entry of Charles Rider, who, it was said, abandoned the land. He was never found and Mr. Fleischer was given a preference right of entry and homesteaded. In 1915 he received his patent. It was charged that Mr. McLaren appeared on the scene in 1909 and settled on the land. He fought for his title for several years in the Land Office and then changed the scene of battle to the courts.

The case went in and out and around but Mr. McLaren was never given a decision. During the fracas Mr. Fleischer was the target for a poor marksman on a number of occasions, he charged, and it was over the land that the shots were fired. But yesterday his attorney, Patrick H. Laughran, won the long-contested title in Washington.
